Referendum on Zoning Planned

Public hearing by the Board of Supervisors on the County Planning Commission's recommendation for Retail Business rezoning for some 25 acres of land on the west side of San Pablo Dam Road was scheduled Tuesday by the supervisors for 9 a.m. November 19.

The county board's scheduling of a hearing date came as the Orinda Association prepared for circulation of referendum petitions throughout the county in case the supervisors approve the commission's recommendation.

MEANWHILE, hundreds of Orindans were signing petitions circulated by the association's Orinda Planning Committee, appealing to the supervisors to deny the East Bay Municipal Utility District application for rezoning and urging establishment of "a new planned unit development."

Meeting at Orinda School library Monday night, Orinda Association directors laid plans for a drive to halt effecitveness of any adverse county ruling by placing the matter before the electorate in a referendum election.

"In order to petition successfully for a referendum, signatures of registered voters throughout the county equal in number to 10 per cent of the county voters in the preceding gubernatorial election are necessary," Director George Hauerken explained.

"PETITIONS CANNOT be circulated and signed until after the Board of Supervisors makes its ruling on the Planning Commission recommendation. And we would have only 30 days in which to file the referendum petition.

"Therefore we must be prepared to swing into action as soon as an adverse decision is made by the supervisors."

Anne Sanford reported that members of the Women's Planning League of Contra Costa County "understand the Orinda situation" and would be able to aid in distribution of referndum petitions.

Miss Mary A. Smith, assistant clerk of the Board of Supervisors, said on Wednesday that the board had originally planned to hold its hearing November 18 but had scheduled it for November 19 instead because the Dr. W. F. Thomas rezoning application is to be heard November 19 at 10 a.m.

The Dr. Thomas application is recommended for denial by the Planning Commission. It asks Retail Business rezoning of Lot 42 at the corner of Moraga Highway and Southwood Drive.

FRANK NEWMAN of the Orinda Association phoned Miss Smith Wednesday, stating he would be in New York November 19 and asking if another date could be scheduled.

According to Miss Smith, he said he would get in touch with Carlisle Nielsen, Dr. Thomas' attorney, as to an agreeable date and added that he would probably file a written request for another date.

"The hearing has been scheduled for November 19, so if Newman files a written request and the board decides on another date, the board will announce in advance that the November 19 hearing will be continued to another date," Miss Smith said yesterday.

Incorporation Will Be Subject Of Further Study

Next "Town Hall" meeting on Orinda incorporation was postponed indefinitely by the Orinda Association board Monday night, so that committees can be formed for study of various portions of the Coro Foundation report.

President Zach Montgomery said that after receiving reports from these committees, the board hopes to take a definite stand on the subject of incorporation.

WHEN THE NEXT "Town Hall" meeting is held, the board expects to make a recommendation and, after further discussion at that gathering, to have the people decide whether steps should be taken toward incorporation, he said.

Directors authorized Frank Cayting, chairman of the incorporation study committee, to appoint committees for further study of the Coro report.

"I think it's the directors' responsibility to take a stand," Director Joe Conley observed.

DIRECTORS Robert Boyle and George Hauerken agreed, as did other directors after some discussion.

Originally, a "Town Hall" meeting had been planned for around mid-November.

At an October 11 town gathering at Orinda School auditorium, some 200 persons participated in discussion of the Coro report.

Board Supports Action Against Division of Lot

Stand of the Glorietta Improvement Association against division of a 1.3-acre lot on Rheem Boulevard into three parcels and start of construction on two of the subparcels was endorsed by the Orinda Association board Monday night.

Tevis Thompson, reporting for Paul Pollaczek of the Glorietta Improvement Association, stated that the Glorietta improvers wanted the support of the Orinda Association board in helping "push through a revision of the Subdivision Ordinance which would prohibit such practices."

In endorsing the stand of the Glorietta group, Orinda Association directors authorized Chairman James Hupp of the Orinda Planning Committee to write a letter to county authorities, urging adoption of the ordinance revision.

THE GLORIETTA association has retained Joseph Creighton as attorney in the matter involving the lot on Rheem Boulevard.

Creighton said that Lawrie Construction Company had obtained a permit to build on the lot. After work had started on a house in front and arrangement had been made to sell the middle portion of land, a building was started at the rear, he said.

"The district attorney issued a stop-work order and the foreman was put in the county jail," Creighton reported. "After a half-day he was bailed out.

"THIS IS ANOTHER instance where certain persons are trying to circumvent the Zoning Ordinance," he continued. "The Glorietta Improvement Association intends to do everything in its power to see that the law is enforced and that the property of Orinda people is protected from inroads of this kind."

Complaint had been made by Ben Olsen, president, and Bob Boles, plans approval chairman of the Glorietta Improvement Association.

The property involved is next to the N. S. Dodge property, Creighton said.

IN OTHER ACTIONS the Orinda Association board:

1. Renewed association membership in the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association and authorized payment of $25 annual dues.

2. Heard announcement that William Penn Mott Jr. will address the Contra Costa County Park and Recreation Council tomorrow night at Danville Grange Hall.

Sues for $4,508 On Faulty Pool

Calvin D. Bowles, 74 Diablo View, filed suit Saturday for $4508 in a complaint that his swimming pool "is now a total loss and must be reconstructed."

The action was taken in the Superior Court, Martinez, against Norman Tieslau, who is now doing business as Diablo Pools.

The complaint says Bowles paid $2,850 to Diablo Pools for the job, plus $533 for repairs made independent of the contract. Reconstruction of the pool "in accordance with the terms, understanding and specifications as agreed to by the parties at the time of entering into the contract" would cost $3,975, according to Bowles.

He asks judgment for $3,975 and the amount expended for repairs.

Mercury Dips to Thirties Here

The breath of winter weather was felt here during the past week when the mercury dipped to the 30's for the first time this fall.

High temperature for the week was the 81 registered on October 21. The mercury dropped to a low of 33 on Tuesday.

There was no rain during the week. Total precipitation for the weather year beginning July 1 is .55 of an inch.

Here are the week's temperatures:

	High	Low
October 21	81	40
October 22	74	49
October 23	71	41
October 24	70	39
October 25	73	34
October 26	72	33
October 27	78	34

Voting Trouble? You Can Phone Mrs. Fowler

Orinda voters who find they are not registered in their correct precinct or who have any other difficulty in voting Tuesday may call Mrs. W. H. Fowler, CLifford 4-2303, for advice.

Mrs. Fowler, precinct chairman of the Orinda Republican Women's Club, will have a staff of women working with her to aid Orinda voters on election day.

'SUMMER AND SMOKE' by Tennessee Williams will be presented by the Dramateurs Thursday night and Saturday night, November 4, at Orinda School auditorium at 8:30. Left to right, cast members Charles Scott, Alice Swenning and Simonne Sherri rehearse a scene from the play, which is laid in the 1910 period. Performances will also be given at Berkeley High School Little Theater November 12 and 13, 8:30 p. m. — Photo by Jasper Allara

Sanitary District Directors Will Consider Bond Issue at Next Meeting

Whether or not an early bond issue should be submitted to voters will be discussed by directors of Central Contra Costa Sanitary District Thursday night.

At a meeting last week in which Southern Public Utilities District was annexed to CCCSD, Chairman Irving Roemer announced the desirability of a bond issue would be discussed and requested directors to consider the matter.

THE ANNEXATION, which includes Cameo Acres, Vista Grande and Las Lomitas subdivisions in Danville, is the result of months of effort on the part of directors of trouble ridden SPUD and others.

Annexed by petition after the signatures of owners of more than 75 per cent of the assessed valuation were obtained, the area includes some 400 homes and land sufficient for an additional 200.

The area must now raise $276,000 to connect the annexation to a present district line in Walnut Creek as well as build lateral lines to serve its own area.

WHILE THE NEW AREA, known as Southern Annexation No. 1 was accepted, directors deferred action on a request to include an additional 46.5 acre parcel after a warning against further annexation was voiced by Director Ernest Spiegl.

Adjoining SPUD lands, the parcel is owned by Foothill Brokers Inc. and is to be used for the development of housing. Action on the annexation request will follow a report by Engineer Gerry Horstkotte.

Spiegl said that new annexations might not be approved of by residents of the existing overburdened district and that they might therefore be prejudiced against any future bond issue.

FAVORABLY CONSIDERED for annexation was the Diablo Public Utility District which includes 30 developed acres in Diablo Country Club subdivision.

The district, which is now equipped with a system built in 1916, will be further considered after Horstkotte prepares annexation terms.

Horstkotte had recommended the annexation and that present sewer laterals be replaced.

Also approved for annexation were the Valpreda property on Pleasant Hill Road owned by F. P. Lathrop Construction Company and a medical-dental building on Monument Boulevard owned by Howard J. White.

BOARD MEMBERS also:

1. Agreed to meet in the near future with County Health Officer Dr. H. L. Blum to discuss problems posed by septic tanks in areas not now served by sewers.

2. Directed the engineer to prepare plans for extending the line capacity between the lower and upper pumping stations in Orinda by January 15.

3. Certified James Corry Jr. as sewer inspector and Eugene E. Bulin as chief plant operator.

4. Accepted easements over properties owned by J. B. Near, Valley Baptist Church and Simonds, Stagg and Oliver.

Commission Hears Plans for Roads

Preliminary plans for two roads were heard for addition to the General Highway Plan of Contra Costa County by the County Planning Commission Wednesday night. Second public hearing will be November 10.

They were a Burton Station-to-Alamo cutoff road, south of Lafayette, and a Moraga-to-Mt. Diablo Boulevard highway west of the existing Moraga Road.

The Burton Station cutoff would be a limited access road connecting with the future Shepherd Canyon freeway north of St. Mary's College and with the future San Ramon Valley freeway near Green Valley Road.

The purpose of a highway master plan is to have a basis for requirement of rights-of-way in proposed subdivisions and other developments, it has been explained.

In addition to the two roads heard Wednesday night, preliminary plans are being drawn for other highways in Clayton Valley, Ygnacio Valley, Pleasant Hill, El Sobrante, Lafayette, Orinda, San Ramon Valley and Martinez, according to Associate Planner Richard Stockwell.

Scavenger Hunt, Party Slated for Fellowship

The Orinda Community Church Pilgrim Fellowship Sunday will have a slight variation from their regular meeting.

PF'ers will meet at the church at 6:30 p.m., then will set out in teams on a scavenger hunt entitled "Trick or Treat for Others."

They'll return to the church at 8:30 p.m. for a Halowe'en party with all the traditions — and then some!

Kids' Hallowe'en Party Tomorrow

A Halloween costume parade and party, with prizes for the best garb, will be held tomorrow morning for grade school children in the Orinda-Moraga area at the recently opened Clark's Market in the Moraga Shopping Center.

Sponsored by the Orinda Lions Club, the colorful affair will get under way at 10 o'clock, and will feature games, prizes and gifts for all attending. Salty the Clown will lead the Witches' Parade.

Theater ticket prizes are being donated by Ben Randall of the Orinda Theater, and other prizes by Jack and Chet Clark of the Market.

Seafarers to Meet

The Seafarers will meet Friday evening, November 5, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Kuenzli, 66 Orchard Road. Dessert will be served by the hostess at 7:30.

Library May Be Built at Present Center Location

Directors of the Orinda Association set machinery in motion Monday night for use of a parcel on the present Orinda Community Center land for a public library.

After discussion at the directors' meeting at Orinda School library, the Orinda Library Board, consisting of Orinda Junior Woman's Club and Orinda Lions Club members, agreed to confer with the association's Civic Center, Park and Recreation Committee and its Orinda Planning Committee.

The Orinda Library Board delegation was headed by Dr. Lloyd Farrar, chairman.

ASSOCIATION President Zach Montgomery pointed out that some months ago the association board had assured the library group of a site wherever Community Center land would be — whether at the present location or at the Pine Grove.

However, he added that William Penn Mott Jr., member of the Orinda Planning Committee and veteran civic leader here, had informed him that the Pine Grove, if acquired for community use, would not be large enough for all community facilities needed.

"If we take this view, of the Pine Grove possibly augmenting our present Community Center land, then perhaps we should let the library group use a site on the present Community Center land for a library."

The other directors agreed with this view.

DISCUSSION REVOLVED around possibility of leasing a parcel to the Orinda Library on a long-term arrangement for a nominal fee, probably $1 a year.

Dr. Farrar explained that the library group is planning to launch a fund drive for a library building in the near future and wants to be able to tell the people about a definite location for a structure.

Mrs. John Madison of the library board said that such an arrangement might be satisfactory to the County Library but that County Librarian Bertha Hellum would have to know more specific details before giving a definite answer.

Bart McMahon, Lions president, and Kenneth Courtright of the library group also participated in the discussion.

Four Directors Will Be Elected By Association

Report on preparations for the annual election of Orinda Association directors was made to the association board by Chairman Tevis Thompson of the Civic Affairs Committee Monday night.

Thompson told the board that the following candidates have been selected by the nominating committee for the four board posts to be filled:

District 3—Caroline P. (Mrs. Robert D.) Harrison, Theodore D. Sanford.

District 6—Frederick A. Sawyer, Thomas W. Sibary.

District 7—A. M. (Mel) Arighi, Robert L. Miller.

District 8—Clinton T. Hallsted, Paul L. Pollaczek.

Ballots are scheduled to be mailed Wednesday, with Saturday, November 13, the deadline for their return. One director is to be elected from each district, but all association members vote for all four posts. New directors will assume duties in January.

Retiring directors are President Zach Montgomery, Vice-President Nathan Gray, George Hauerken and Frank Cayting.

Holdover directors, whose terms have another year to go, are Mrs. Stuart Henderson, secretary; Joe Conley, Harold Rote, Harold Neeland and Robert Boyle.

Demos, GOP Agree: 'Be Sure to Vote'

Voters were urged yesterday by Reublican and Democratic leaders alike to be sure to cast their ballots Tuesday.

Dr. Forest G. Hill, of Orinda, assistant professor of economics at the University of California and a member of the County Democratic Central Committee, said:

"We should think every day, but we must vote election day. Our thinking makes little difference in public affairs if we don't vote.

"We must remember that undecided voters and uncast votes don't count. And we certainly want to be counted when issues of our community and national welfare and prosperity are at stake."

Joseph Creighton of Orinda, an attorney, member of the County Republican Central Committee and president of the State Young Republicans, said:

"It is important to vote intelligently. It is the duty of citizens, not only to vote, but to study the issues.

"We enjoy freedom in this great land because it is a government of the people, by the people and for the people. The way we can assure this freedom is by going to the polls and voting."

Both Creighton and Hill stated that they feel there is more voter interest in the election in Contra Costa County than in other counties in California.

Speaking from a partisan standpoint, Creighton declared: "President Eisenhower cannot carry on his policies effectively without the support of a Republican Congress. Obviously our President must have the cooperation of Congress, and this can be accomplished by voting for candidates that will support him."

Also speaking from a partisan viewpoint, Hill said: "It is time for us to rise above smear and fear, and to vote our honest opinions on policies and programs as well as candidates."

Brown Charges 'Ad Is Faked', Shows Records

Harry A. Brown, candidate for county sheriff, today said that a document published in a political advertisement for his opponent, B. W. Richardson, is "doctored or forged in part."

Alleging to be a photostat of Brown's Contra Costa County Civil Service application, the document was published in an advertisement in yesterday's Shopper of the Times.

It purports that Brown served in the Army in 1925 and 1926 and accompanying statements allege that Brown did not really serve 20 years in the U. S. Navy.

IN REFUTATION, Brown produced official documents to prove that he had served 20 years in the Navy and also that he was in the Navy in 1926, at the very same time the questionable document alleges he was in the Army.

These papers included a certified copy of a Bureau of Naval Personnel Form 553 which shows that he served in the U. S. Navy for 16 years and 11 months up to 1946, and another document showing that he served another three years between 1946 and 1949.

The second official paper shows that Brown was retired in 1949 at the pay of a lieutenant, junior grade.

"I have never served in the U. S. Army for even one day, these Navy documents prove it," Brown said.

"This so-called 'photostat' of my civil service application is either doctored or forged in part, because I was in the Navy at the time this document says I was in the Army," he added.

THE QUESTIONABLE photostat also says that Brown purchased his discharge from the Army. To this Brown said, "I have never purchased a discharge to get out of any branch of the service."

He also revealed that Capt. George Walker, U.S.N.R. Retired, called Navy officials in Washington, D.C., requesting a detailed record of his complete record of service in the Navy.

Brown said that he has been informed the detailed record will be wired from Washington later today (Friday).

He also reported that Thursday afternoon he went to the county district attorney's office to demand that an investigation into the "forged" documen be initiaed.

"Also, I have been advised to submit this doctored document to the Grand Jury for immediate investigation," Brown reported.

"I sincerely hope that the true facts about the doctored document can be brought to light immediately," he added.

FRANK PEREIRA, Brown's Martinez campaign chairman, said yesterday, "I went to the County Civil Service Commission office and they would not allow me to take Harry Brown's application form so that it might be photostated or examined by experts."

"I do not understand how they gave the record to anybody else for photostating when they wouldn't give it to us, but Personnel Director Eric Emery admitted that the record was taken out by Undersheriff Al Aljets!" he said.

"I pointed out that the Richardson people have printed what they claim to be a photostat of the application form in a newspaper ad," Pereira added.

Statements accompanying the Richardson advertisement also alleged that Brown "quit a job paying $4992 a year . . . to take a $3600 a year job," supposedly implying that Brown would have done no such thing.

THIS FACT was explained yesterday by George Walker, Captain USNR Retired, an attorney.

He said, "Harry Brown held the wartime rank of lieutenant junior grade up to 1946. In 1946, officers holding such temporary wartime commissioned rank were allowed the option of:

"1. Having the rank made permanent, but being released to inactive duty because of lack of funds and needs of the naval service for retention on duty of so many officers, or . . .

"2. Voluntarily reverting to their permanent chief petty officer rate and being retained on duty so as to complete the needed service for retirement purposes.

"HARRY BROWN wisely chose to remain on duty in his permanent rating of chief signalman, until he completed 20 years active service in 1949."

Walker also answered another allegation in the Richardson ad—that Brown in the questionable document says he was a chief petty officer at Hunters Point Navy Yard, but that The SUN has stated that he was Chief Master at Arms.

"Brown would have served as Master at Arms at the same time that he held the rate of chief signalman," Walker said, adding, "the phrase 'master at arms' is a job description, not a rate, and any responsible chief petty officer might be assigned to the post."

Criticism of Brown's Record Absurd -- Newell

"It seems absurd to have to defend Harry Brown's service record of over 20 years, including participation in numerous naval battles and invasions during the war," George Newell, Brown's Richmond campaign manager said today.

Newell referred to a newspaper advertisement alleging that Brown did not actually serve 20 years in the U.S. Navy which appeared locally this week.

"IT IS NOW a matter of public record that Brown enlisted in the Navy, saw duty in the Coast Guard and had a magnificent record during the war until he was retired in 1949 on Lieutenant J/G's pay," Newell said.

"We have never tried to make political hay of the fact that his opponent has never served in the armed services at all," Newell added.

"We expected that smears would be coming in the last few days before election," said Newell, "This and other smear tactics merely emphasize that Brown is going to win and that this strategy on his opponent's part is the result of panic."

"WHAT ELSE could it be, when most political observers throughout the county believe that Brown is winning," Newell added.

He also said that he agrees with Brown's statement that he (Brown) doesn't feel it necesary to answer each and every one of the ridiculous allegations in this week's advertisement.

"There will probably be other smears before next Tuesday, but we know that the voters of Contra Costa County will see through this political smoke screen," Newell concluded.

Robin Muse to Leave Hospital

Robin Muse, 16-year-old Orinda boy seriously injured in a recent car crash, is greatly improved and will return to his home tomorrow from Oakland's Peralta Hospital, it was reported this week.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Muse of 8 Camino Encinas, Orinda, Robin suffered a skull fracture and other head injuries October 17 when a car in which he was passenger slammed into an embankment and culvert on Camino Diablo just south of Canton Road.

Jon Tibbetts, 15, driver of the car and son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Reginald Tibbetts of 1 Camino Diablo, Moraga, escaped with minor bruises.

Divorce Suit Is Filed by Couple

A joint divorce suit was filed recently in Martinez by Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Jorgensen of 16 Dolores Way. The separate complaints were filed several hours apart.

Mrs. Jorgensen accused her husband of cruelty and failure to provide for her and their three children. Mr. Jorgensen's complaint charged his wife with misconduct.

The couple wed in Piedmont on June 11, 1938, and separated August 7, 1954, according to the complaints.

Mrs. Jorgensen seeks $250 monthly support, but made no claim to community property consisting of their $17,000 Orinda home, two autos, Piedmont property, a boat, tools and furniture valued at $30,000.

Clark Denies Any Responsibility For Advertisement

John Clark, the Walnut Creek resident whose name is signed to the advertisment in yesterday's shopper of the Times alleging that Harry Brown, candidate for sheriff, did not really serve 20 years in the U.S. Navy, last night denied any responsibility for the advertisement.

He said he had never seen the civil service document until it was published in the Shopper.

Before five witnesses, Clark said, "I didn't place that ad . . . I have no recollection of ever signing anything having to do with that ad."

ASKED IF HE KNEW the anti-Brown advertisement was going to be printed, Clark said, "Not that I recall . . . I have no idea of who put the ad in the paper."

Clark said that he has worked in behalf of B. W. Richardson, Brown's opponent for county sheriff, and said that Walnut Creek realtor Dr. F. L. Blue might know about it.

Asked if Blue had ever talked to him about any advertisement, Clark said, "No . .. no . . . no."

"THAT'S WHY I want to find out just what the ad is all about. I want to talk to Blue and see what the score is," he added.

Clark was told that representatives of the newspaper which printed the advertisement containing charges against Brown said earlier yesterday that a Mr. Clark had brought the ad in and had signed for it.

"Oh no, no, no," Clark said.

The advertisement printed over Clark's name alleges that Brown did not serve 20 years in the Navy, as shown in a document contained in the ad which is alleged to be a photostated copy of Brown's Contra Costa Civil Service application.

(See separate story this page.)

Later, after leaving the interview with SUN reporters, Clark called back by phone to say, "Tell Mr. Silverman, if there's anything he wants to know, he'll have to call my attorney, George Gordon."

Freeway Schedule To Be Discussed By Highway Group

Time-schedule of construction of the Pleasant Hill Road interchange, Lafayette By-Pass and the Walnut Creek-to-Monument portions of the Diablo Freeway will form a major topic at the annual meeting of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation in the Stanley School auditorium, Lafayette, November 24, Director Elliot J. Hartman announced yesterday.

Hartman said that Assistant District Engineer A. E. Simmons and County Road Commissioner Victor W. Sauer and their staffs will be present for the discussion. Sauer is also expected to report on the latest development in the county road bond program.

An entirely new board will be elected for the coming year — a chairman, vice-chairman, secretary-treasurer and eight directors. Present officers are Charles Nelson, chairman; Ed Rowland, vice-chairman, and Dudley Thickens, secretary-treasurer.

Top Political Contests Here Rated Even by Observers

On the eve of next Tuesday's general election, Contra Costa County's two heated political contests are rated a toss-up by most observers.

For Congress from the Sixth District, Robert L. Condon, the Democratic incumbent, faces John Baldwin, the Republican nominee, in what looks like a tight race right down to the wire.

The same is being said of the campaign for sheriff, where Lt. Harry Brown of Alamo is running against B. W. Richardson of Richmond.

BOTH RACES are heated and emotion runs high. The state-wide and even national focus on the Baldwin-Condon contest gives Contra Costa's 1954 elections a heightened importance.

Baldwin led Condon by a majority of 6585 votes in the primary and he has now received the endorsement of Al L. Day, Concord City Councilman, who polled 10,973 votes in the primary.

While Republicans say that this means a victory for Baldwin is assured, Democrats refuse to go along.

Condon's supporters point to the fact that Contra Costa County is predominantly Democrat, claims that their workers will really bring out the stay-at-home vote and look to victory.

THE BIG QUESTION after the primary, insofar as the sheriff's race is concerned, was, "Who will get the 28,198 votes polled by the four other unsuccessful candidates —Brown or Richardson?"

No answer has appeared. John A. Miller's supporters have split both ways, with some now backing Brown and others backing Richardson. Miller ran third in the primary with 21,498 votes.

Last Saturday Miller conducted his own off-the-cuff "straw vote" by stopping citizens on the streets of towns throughout the county and asking who they planned to vote for.

He said that his stand in the sheriff's race would depend upon the outcome, but some observers note that most of his key workers are already committed to either Richardson or Brown, apparently according to their personal dictates.

BROWN SUPPORTERS claim that they will hold their strength in the Walnut Creek-Lafayette-Orinda-Pleasant Hill area and gain in Martinez, Pittsburg and the eastern county.

Richardson claims solid strength in the west county and in Crockett, Antioch and Martinez.

The surest bet on the local scene, seems to be Donald D. Doyle, Republican assemblyman from the 10th District, who is opposed by Ed Munns, the Democratic nominee.

DOYLE HAS KEPT his campaign separate from Baldwin's and, according to various reports, has considerable support from the labor unions. Then, too, Doyle polled 30,878 votes in the primary, to only 14,309 for Munns.

Democrats, claiming a Democratic majority in the county, are still not ready to predict a win for Munns.

Also on the ballot, of course, are all state offices, as well as the 20 propositions which were on the sample ballots mailed to voters this week.

Local elections include the contest for two trustee posts in the Pleasant Hill Park, Parkway and Recreation District, and also the contest for two board chairs in the East Bay Municipal Utility District. (See other stories in this issue of The SUN.)

Over $8 Million Allocated to Diablo Freeway; Work May Start in Spring

Construction of the freeway interchange at Pleasant Hill Road and Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette, will probably get under way next spring, Assistant State Highway Engineer B. W. Booker said yesterday.

Work on Lafayette By-Pass west from the vicinity of Pleasant Hill Road to a point just west of Sunnybrook Drive is expected to start shortly after that, and work on the Walnut Creek-to-Monument stretch of freeway is planned for "as close as possible" to the same period as for Lafayette By-Pass, Booker stated.

Booker, in charge of the District IV office of the State Division of Highways in San Francisco, stressed that these perspectives are not definite but he pointed out that they are logical in view of the $8,800,000 budgeted last week for Diablo Freeway construction for the 1955-56 fiscal year by the California Highway Commission.

"That's the way we're planning it," he commented.

THE DEPARTMENT of Public Works can advertise for bids in March if plans are ready and if rights-of-way are substantially acquired, even though the 1955-56 fiscal year does not begin until a few months later, July 1," he continued.

"That means that construction could be started in the spring.

"Practically all the rights-of-way for the interchange area in the vicinity of Pleasant Hill Road have been acquired, as has the right-of-way for the major portion of Lafayette By-Pass."

BOOKER POINTED OUT that of the $1,957,000 allocated for right-of-way acquisition in Contra Costa County, $1,250,000 is for rights-of-way for the Walnut Creek By-Pass and for purchases still to be made for the Walnut Creek-to-Monument stretch.

Funds for right-of-way purchases still to be made for the Pleasant Hill Road interchange and Lafayette By-Pass have been provided in previous appropriations, Booker said.

The assistant state highway engineer estimated that work on the interchange and Lafayette By-Pass would take "from 18 months to two years." He said it is possible that Orinda Interchange, the first phase of Diablo Freeway construction, may be completed by January, if the weather is favorable.

"Of course it's possible that completion of the Orinda job may be delayed by weather conditions," he added. "In that case, work on the Pleasant Hill Road interchange may start before the Orinda Interchange is completed."

ASSEMBLYMAN Donald Doyle expressed gratification at the record $11,122,000 allocated to Contra Costa and said he hopes that two years from now the Highway Commission will budget funds for construction of Walnut Creek By-Pass.

He called attention to the fact that the major portion of the $11,122,000 is for the Diablo Freeway, which gets $10,130,000 — $8,880,000 for construction and $1,250,000 for right-of-way.

IN ADDITION to the $11,122,000 allocated to Contra Costa County, $700,000 is budgeted for grading, surfacing and realignment of two miles of State Route 21 from U.S. Highway 50 to north of the Alameda-Contra Costa County line.

Booker said that two-tenths of a mile of this stretch is in Contra Costa County, so that $70,000 of these funds could be considered Contra Costa allocation. This brings the total budgeting for this county up to $11,192,000.

ELLIOT J. HARTMAN, director and past chairman of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation, joined Doyle in hoping for Walnut Creek By-Pass allocation two years from now, and also for the freeway sections to connect Orinda Interchange with Lafayette By-Pass — the Charles Hill section from Orinda Interchange to two-tenths of a mile west of Hidden Valley, and the Upper Happy Valley Road interchange from the point west of Hidden Valley to Sunnybrook Drive.

The $291,739,600 budget was adopted by the Highway Commission October 21 in Sacramento, Booker said, but it was not announced until Monday.

Although it is some $7 million less than the 1954-55 budget, Contra Costa County received more than at any previous time and almost twice as much as last year, when some $6 million went to this county, most of it for the Highway 40 area.

Here's Breakdown On State Highway Funds for County

Here's the breakdown of the record $11,122,000 allocated for Contra Costa County in the California Highway Commission budget for the 1955-56 fiscal year:

Lafayette By-Pass (State Route 24—2.6 miles from vicinity of Pleasant Hill Road to west of Sunnybrook Drive; grade, pave and structures for six and eight-lane freeway running generally 500 to 100 feet north of Mt. Diablo Boulevard)—$3,800,000.

Pleasant Hill Road interchange (State Route 24—1.3 miles from west to east of Pleasant Hill Road; grade, pave and structures for six and eight-lane freeway; two cloverleaf approaches east of Pleasant Mill Road, one north and one south of Mt. Diablo Boulevard)—$1,500,000.

Walnut Creek-to-Monument (State Routes 21 and 24—2.8 miles from north city limits of Walnut Creek at Oakland Boulevard to three-tenths of a mile north of the Monument; grade, pave and structures for four-lane freeway) —$3,500,000.

Danville Highway (State Route 21—reconstruction of 4.4 miles from Danville to seven-tenths of a mile north of the south city limits of Walnut Creek)—$285,000. Right-of-way—$1,957,000.

Orinda News Is Reorganized

Reorganization of the Orinda News, official publication of the Orinda Association, was announced at the organization's board meeting Monday night at Orinda School Library.

President Zach Montgomery reported that Andy Blalock has resigned as editor, due to the press of other activities.

Robert Boyle, as director of publications for the association, is now in charge of the Orinda News, and Mrs. Kathleen B. Scott has been appointed advertising and business manager.

It was decided that the paper will appear regularly each month, as required by the association by-laws.

The board adopted a resolution thanking Blalock for his efforts.

Acalanes Adds 2 New Classes

Two new subjects have been added to the Acalanes High School curriculum this year, A Capella Choir and Public Speaking 2.

A Cappella, taught by Richard Hansen, is an advanced singing class. The A Cappella class of 45 voices competed in the recent annual University of California Music Festival. The A Cappella will perform for Don parents at the November Parents Club meeting.

Public Speaking 2, taught by Bert Trulsson, is an advanced course in speech for students who have successfully completed one year of public speaking. Debating and argumentative techniques are among the subjects that will be emphasized.

The new additions raise to 45 the number of subjects offered by the Acalanes curriculum, ranging from English and chemistry to wood and auto shops.

Prep Grid Play Ends Next Friday

Next Friday night the 1954 prep grid season winds up.

Big game of the week will be Diablo at Pittsburg, while for local fans the "Big One" will be the Acalanes Dons vs. the Las Lomas Knights at Acalanes Memorial Field.

Rounding out the week's schedule will be Pleasant Hill at Antioch.

PREPARING to build "Hernando's Hideaway" are Acalanes sophomores Patsy Stevens, Marilee Harrer, Bill Freeman, Norma Wadell and Judy Parker. These hard working individuals are the chairmen of the "Soph Hop" to be held tonight. —Blueprint Photo

Highway Group Asks 'No' on Proposition 17

The Board of Directors of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation urges a "no" vote on Proposition 17 Tuesday, Director Elliot J. Hartman announced yesterday.

"The directors are of the opinion that there should be no diversion of gasoline tax funds," Hartman said, "We feel that this proposition, to allow such funds to be used for financing parking facilities, would, if passed, be the first foot in the door for diversion of gas tax funds for any similar purpose.

"Up to now these funds have been inviolate.

"IF THIS MEASURE inculded bus loading and unloading zones on freeways, it would be another matter. But it doesn't.

"If this proposition passed, any moves for parking facilities throughout the state could take funds out of the gas tax revenue — and in this area we would get very little help for parking through this source."

Proposition 17 (Assembly Constitutional Amendment 32) would permit street and highway revenues collected by the state (from such sources as gasoline taxes, vehicle registration and operation fees) to be used for parking facilities, as the Legislature may prescribe.

PROPONENTS contend it would relieve traffic congestion near urban centers by using waste space along freeways fo rparking.

Opponents declare the fund-diversion would slow highway construction and point out that other means are available to finance parking — private capital, parking districts and other public bodies.

The Commonwealth Club of California is also against Proposition 17.

Plan Gift Fair At St. Stephen's

Unusual stuffed animals and clever Christmas decorations will be featured at a Gift Fair to be held from 1:30 to 8 pm. on Thursday, November 18, by the members of St. Stephen's Woman's Auxiliary in the Undercroft of the church.

Mrs. Frank Hibbard, chairman of the Gift Fair, also has members of the auxiliary making doll clothes, felt articles, aprons, and foods for the holiday season, all to be sold at the Gift Fair.

A buffet will be open during the day to dispense refreshments and will serve coffeee and dessert after 6:30 p.m. for late shoppers. Mrs. Robert Moorhead is in charge of the buffet.

Women Persist, Help Save Dog

The persistence of two Orinda women last week saved the life of a six-weeks-old puppy on the Skyline Boulevard above the Oakland Naval Hospital.

Mrs. George Kirby, 24 El Toyonal Road, and Mrs. W. B. Dunshee, 38, Ardilla Road, were horseback riding in the area Thursday afternoon, October 21, when they heard the dog's cries from beneath a manhole cover.

Although Oakland City Pound and water company men could not find the puppy, the women refused to give up. They drove up to the spot with their husbands, five children and Lloyd Graham, riding stable operator.

Kirby and Graham pried open the manholes to the 12-inch wide sewer and discovered the dog at a point where the pipe made a sharp "L."

The Kirby children, Tom, 11, Jerry, 7, and John, 5, and the Dunshee's two girls, Susan, 11, and Drusilla, 8, aided the hunt with flashlights. The Dunshees took the puppy home for their daughters.

The black dog was named Monty "because he came down from the mountains."

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

The coming congressional election for the Sixth District, State of California, is most important to me as a registered voter and Democrat. The fact that I do not regard the qualifications of the present Democratic incumbent and candidate as satisfactory is of great personal dissatisfaction.

It is of vital importance above all other considerations that men of proven integrity and unquestioned loyalty be sent to our Congress, and unfortunately, as I understand information made public, this can not be said about the incumbent.

His personal actions have not been up to the high standards required by his office. His associations have been so questionable that security restrictions have been applied to him. His voting record leaves one no alternative but to suspect his true political convictions. These facts from available public information have caused our National Democratic Party to withdraw its support.

Surely, if the incumbent were reelected he would not enjoy the prestige and cooperation in Congress our representative must have to properly serve his community and further, his election would focus undue and embarrassing national attention on our area.

It is my conviction that we as voters can be sure of good representation if we elect only men from our comunity of well known integrity, ability and proven loyalty. Also, that we must vote regardless of party to do this.

John Baldwin meets the requirements very well and will make the kind of representative who can act properly and effectively in our behalf in Congress. The community can be justifiably proud if the voters at the polls send John Baldwin to Congress from our district.

Orinda Chamber To Hear Debate On Incorporation

Arguments for and against Orinda incorporation will highlight the Orinda Chamber of Commerce's regular semi-monthly luncheon meeting at the Willows Tuesday noon, President Ernest Poll Announced yesterday.

George P. Eberhart will discuss the advantages of incorporation and Clarence E. Betz will talk on the disadvantages, according to Poll. Ramsay Underwood, member of the Orinda Association's incorporation study committee, will act as moderator.

Following the debate, there will be a 20-minute general discussion period.

The program is a follow-up of the presentation October 21 by Underwood of facts listed in the Coro Foundation's study on possible incorporation of Orinda and is in line with community-wide discussions now under way.

Audubon Screen Tour Monday

William H. Wagoner Jr., Audubon Screen Tour photographer-lecturer, will show his color film, "Wanderland," Monday night at 8 p.m. in Building 12 on the East Contra Costa Junior College campus, Golf Links Road. There will be no admission and the public is invited.

WHAT'S DOING

George A. Bauslaugh, your Telephone Manager in Orinda

Now your voice can answer the telephone when you're away

Scene: an office. Nobody's there. But when the telephone rings, a voice answers: "This is GArden 6-8049. We'll be back at 3:30. Would you like to leave a message?" This is our new automatic answering and recording equipment at work. When you're away, it automatically "answers" your telephone, gives callers your recorded message. When you return, it plays back their replies. You can get this handy equipment through your telephone business office.

It's one more way we've found to make your telephone more useful...while still keeping it low in cost. Pacific Telephone works to make your telephone a bigger value every day.

Help yourself to even faster long distance service

One of the big advantages of long distance service is that it saves time—helps you do things in a hurry. This service works even faster for you if you give the operator the telephone number of the person you're calling, not just his name and address. In fact, your calls go through twice as fast. So for the very best long distance service, please call by number.

Extension telephones add so much to modern living...yet cost so little

Here in the Pacific West, where pleasant, relaxed living is now a custom, extension telephones are fast becoming a "must" in more and more homes. And small wonder, because they add a truly modern touch to your home. Located in your garage, basement, or workshop . . . in your bedroom and kitchen, extensions save you steps, save you time. And this extra convenience is yours for just pennies a day. So ask your telephone business office about extension telephones for your home. Pacific Telephone.

27 October 1954

From: Commandant, Twelfth Naval District
To: LTJG Harry A. BROWN, USN(RET)

Subj: Statement of Service

Encl: (1) Certified copy of NavPers 553

1. Enclosure (1) is forwarded in response to your request. Further certification as to your active naval service may be obtained from the Chief of Naval Personnel, Navy Department, Washington 25, D.C.

2. Records of this command indicate that you were transferred to the retired list of the Navy on 1 April 1949 in the rank of Lieutenant Junior Grade with the retired pay of that rank.

3. For your information, the inviolability of service records and information therefrom has long been recognized by the Department of the Navy. Normally, information from your record would be made available only to you or to persons properly and directly concerned.

L. C. THOMAS
By direction

THE ABOVE LETTER from the Twelth Naval District shows that Sheriff candidate Harry A. Brown was retired from the Navy as a lieutenant junior grade in 1949.

Dinner Honors Captain Belon

Captain George A. Belon, who recently retired after 33 years of service with the California Highway Patrol, was honored with a testimonial dinner at Orinda Willows Monday night.

Head of the patrol's Contra Costa Squad on retirement, Belon is now transportation supervisor for Acalanes Union High School District.

Patrolman John Connolly, who is a Walnut Creek City Councilman, presented Belon with a clock-radio on behalf of the squad.

A score of Belon's fellow officers county officials and friends spoke eulogizing his services in the highway patrol.

Acalanes Board Skips Meeting

Not held Monday because of a lack of a quorom was a regularly scheduled meeting of the Acalanes High School District Board of Trustees.

The board will next convene at 7:30 p.m. November 8 in the district office at Acalanes High School.

A Citizens' Message About HARRY BROWN

The following citizens, after examining the background, qualifications and experience of Harry A. Brown, candidate for sheriff of Contra Costa County, have arrived at the conclusion in the quoted paragraphs, and lend their endorsement to Brown:

"For several years many citizens of Contra Costa County have expressed dissatisfaction with the operations of the sheriff's office.

"They have felt that police protection has been inadequate, enforcement of the laws against gambling and vice was lax, and the business administration inefficient and costly. A substantial change at the policy making level appears not only desirable but essential if we are to correct this situation.

"The present sheriff's contest presents such an opportunity in the candidacy of Lt. Harry A. Brown. He has taken issue with these past practices and omissions and has clearly and courageously outlined corrective measures. He has a long outstanding record as a police officer and has an established reputation for integrity, efficiency and stability.

"Perhaps of greatest importance is the fact that he is not the chosen candidate of any pressure group but, instead, is widely supported throughout the county by individual citizens and groups of home owners whose only interest is improving law enforcement and raising the status of the sheriff's office to its proper dignity.

"We urge other citizens who are interested in this goal to join with us in active support of Harry Brown in the forthcoming election."

ELECT BROWN SHERIFF

Under The Sun

By Herman Silverman

Politics and Predictions

By gosh, I'm not going to devote this whole column to the sheriff's race. There are other important items to talk about.

I'm not going into a lengthy discussion of the propositions because elsewhere are printed the recommendations of the Commonwealth Club, as well as others. I am going to follow the Commonwealth Club recommendations.

But just a reminder that we need schools — vote YES on Prop. 2 and we need good liquor control — yes on Prop. 3. We should pay our legislators more — yes on Prop. 6 but let's don't increase the terms of their office — no on 10.

How to vote for the two directors of East Bay Municipal Utility District? Frankly, this is a tough one. I find myself in the same position as many of you. We don't like the policies and practices of EBMUD and think a change would be healthy. There is nothing personal in the criticism of Board President Louis Breuner, who apparently rules the board with an iron fist, or Thomas Neilson, the other director up for election. They are public-spirited citizens who devote much time and effort to the District.

Nevertheless, the District has many questionable policies, such as land disposal, zoning, comunity cooperation, arbitrary actions, fluoridation, etc.

Unfortunately, no one seems to know very much about the challengers — George Rice and Keith Chase-Dunn. (See other stories on all four candidates.) There will probably be a very heavy protest vote against Breuner and Neilson, but I'm not yet certain how to vote.

You may or may not know the SUN's policy about endorsements. We do not endorse — unless there is an extremely dangerous but clear cut issue at stake. Frankly, this may be changed in the years to come.

Let's talk about Brown

The only candidate we have ever endorsed for an important office is Harry A. Brown for sheriff.

(Ah, ha, you knew I would not postpone this subject very long.)

I'd like to share my thoughts and reactions about the sheriff's campaign at the present time. Watching the campaign and finally jumping into the middle of it, I find it an amazing experience — sometime disconcerting, other times invigorating. It's an experience I'll never forget. It is wonderful watching unorganized, unselfish people join a crusade to elect Brown. Some have done this at a sacrifice of time and money.

But the most amazing part is to watch the Richardson forces at work. I am surprised at their strategy.

What do I mean? Well, Dick Richardson himself is a solid product to sell — good looks, personable, law enforcement background, etc. And yet what does Richardson do? He, his paid workers, volunteers and the machines seem to be spending most of their time, effort and money tearing down Harry Brown. Examples:

'Down with Brown'

A 4-column by 17-inch ad in the Richmond Independent and a similar one in the Martinez Gazette severely criticize Brown's campaign platform and statements. It names Brown numerous times, but not one word in praise of Richardson.

The Gazette Tuesday night carried a 2-column by 8-inch Richardson ad which tears Brown apart for the statement: "He has a determination to bring respectability to this county and its Sheriff's Department."

At the bottom this ad proclaims, "Dick Richardson will never . . . never say Contra Costa is Not respectable, etc."

Yesterday a 7-column by 16-inch ad appeared in the Shopper of the Times. This ad, which attempts to discredit Brown, purports to show Brown's civil service application, the same document that Dick Richardson has been carrying around. A full answer to this is in this paper.

Other ads will be published Monday, the day before election, to discredit Brown. Irresponsible statements, half-truths, irrelevant or forged documents and faked stories are being used. All these ads will cost Richardson several thousand dollars.

Let's Play Anchors Away

Brown's 20 years in the Navy are a matter of record. Those records obtained from Navy Personnel at Treasure Island are available at The SUN office and Brown has an additional copy.

Further information can be had by calling Lt. Thomas, EXbrook 2-3931, Extension 2573 at Treasure Island.

Brown's service file is due from Bureau of Naval Personnel, Washington, D.C., via telegraph today. Copies of the actual Washington documents have also been airmailed.

Also available at The SUN is a letter of commendation signed by Acting Secretary of Navy Kimball to Brown upon the latter's retirement in 1949.

The only error we've made in reporting is that Brown has also seen service in the Coast Guard.

The Bally Record

You can expect to have the George Bally tape recording thrown at Brown. This was exposed by us last week. Richardson's manager, Ed Solodyna, is carrying around this tape in which Bally is supposed to have said that if Brown is elected, Bally will take over gambling in the Richmond area.

The whole deal is so fraudulent it's funny. But it is dangerous, too, so Brown has issued a clear-cut, public statement repudiating any support from Bally and pledging to personally arrest Bally if he breaks the law.

You see, Bally insists on campaigning for Harry. He won't stop. Figure it out yourself.

For weeks now Richardson and campaigners have done their utmost to plant the rumor in this strong Republican area that Brown is for the Democrats and for Condon. The rumor has failed miserably.

The big turn-about

So now, Richardson forces have sent out a three page, single-spaced letter to some registered Democrats attacking Brown because he is against Condon.

The Federation of Democrat Clubs has already written letters explaining Brown's stand — which is the same as Richardson's. That is — neither will endorse Baldwin or Condon. Brown and Richardson are both registered Democrats.

I could go on and on, citing evidence of the Richardson campaign strategy. I simply cannot understand why they are doing this. I guess they are panicky. Until three weeks ago, I thought Richardson would win. But it has all changed now — and the Richardson campaign has helped do it.

One request: carefully question any statement you hear against Brown in the next few days before election. It's certainly unfair to release last-minute charges — but it will be done. Brown has signed the Fair Campaign Practices Code; Richardson has not.

If you want to check a story, call Mrs. Brown in Alamo. Dolly is a fine person and will be glad to answer your questions.

Who will win? Jim Ritch of the Gazette says it is 50-50. Political wheel Tom Carlson, supporter of Richardson, publicly predicts Brown will win. The latest poll shows a Brown victory. I, too, think Harry will win.

TO: VETERANS ADMINISTRATION

THIS REPRODUCTION OF A CERTIFIED COPY OF BUREAU OF NAVAL PERSONNEL FORM 553 shows that Harry Brown, sheriff candidate, enlisted in the U.S. Navy February 15, 1926 and had served 16 years, 11 months and 18 days by June 2, 1946. It also shows that Brown was an Inspector of Customs for the U.S. Customs Service from 1936, to 1940. Brown said yesterday that detailed records will be wired from Washington, D.C., today (Friday) to show that he enlisted in the U.S. Navy in 1924 under what was called a "boy" or "minority" enlistment. Another document reproduced on this page, indicates that Brown also served in the Navy from 1946 to 1949 when he was discharged as a Lieutenant, Junior Grade.

A large political advertisement in a newspaper yesterday implied sheriff candidate Harry A. Brown was not involved in important work for the U.S. Customs Service. This picture shows otherwise. Printed in the Seattle Daily Times of January 22, 1938, its caption reads in part, "Detective Lieutenant F. A. Local AAUW Unit Endorses Proposition 2

Mrs. E. J. Molloy, legislative chairman of the Walnut Creek Branch of the American Association of University Women, announces the recent approval and endorsement of Proposition 2 by the State Board of Directors.

Mrs. Patricia Goodrich of Los Angeles, state education chairman, presented a resolution to the board which was unanimously passed and all members were urged to vote "yes" on Proposition 2 on November 2.

This proposition would provide $100,000,000 worth of state bonds for loans and grants to districts unable to finance their own school construction programs. Walnut Creek would benefit from the passage of this proposition.

The board also reiterated its stand to oppose Proposition 4, the McClain plan for old age assistance. This resolution was presented and unanimously passed at the state convention held in Santa Barbara in April.

Audubon Screen Series to Start

William H. Wagoner, rangernaturalist at Grand Canyon National Park, and his wife, June, a naturalist in her own right, will show the Audubon Screen Tour "Wanderland" in Building 12 on the East Contra Costa Junior College campus Monday at 8 p.m.

The color film, taken in New Jersey, Florida, the Southwest and the Sierra Nevada, will be the first of five the junior college will sponsor as a lecture series over the next five months.

Baldwin Rally

Jim Moriarty, spokesman for the Baldwin campaign, announced today than an election eve rally for John Baldwin will be held outside the El Rio Hotel near Antioch on Monday night.

Caravans will form in various cities throughout Contra Costa County and will converge upon the El Rio.

RETURN FROM EAST

What could be nicer than the two-week vacation that Jerry and Millie FitzGerald just enjoyed. A flight to New York, beautiful weather, tickets to "Pajama Game," "Dear Charles," and the second of the World Series games, and then a lovely visit in the New England area, with all its magnificent autumn colors at their peak.

This was topped off with picking up a new car in Detroit and a leisurely drive home. During this same time, young son Peter was entertaining grandparents in Carmel.

FUTURE TV STARS?

It seems we have some budding television stars in our midst. Four-year-olds Karen Byers, Suzan Kjar, Alex Frazer and Ken Bernard recently made their TV debut on the Adventure School program for moppets at 9 a.m. and did a great job of blowing soap bubbles, building block houses and banging unrhythmically on tin pans. Such talent!

Will the parents of Glorietta School children please mark down this time and place: 1 p.m., Sunday, October 31, at the school. Come with your shovels and in your gardening clothes because it is the fall planting day at which time over 200 shrubs of barberry, juniper and trailing manzanita must be planted. The site, which includes the two banks above the playground area and behind the new multi-purpose room, has been carefully prepared with a bulldozer, so this job won't be too hard on the muscles! If 100 workers come, this job will be a whiz and the pleasure derived from seeing these plants grow will be divided among many.

The planting has been planned by a landscaping committee headed by R. M. Babcock, landscape architect, who has generously donated his time and ability. Mr. Babcock maintains his office at 5146 Telegraph Avenue, Oakland.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Suzanne Arighi recently celebrated her eleventh birthday at a luncheon at the home of the A. M. Arighis of 1 Orchard Court, to which were invited eight of her friends. This was followed by a show in the afternoon. Suzanne's guests were Robin Brown, Joan Hall, Laraine Axelson, Susan Kronke, Jan Miller, Lyn Anderson and Charlotte Kimball.

The second and fourth grade mothers will be hostesses, under the direction of their room mothers, the Mesdames Harold Staff, B. P. Nechodoma, Spencer Archer, Eugene Jones and Herbert Nilmeier.

Frank Isola, as master of ceremonies, will introduce a star-studded cast which will include Lonnie Currier, vocalist, accompanied by Sally O'Connor; Mario Guarneri and his trumpet, with sister, Rosalie, as accompanist; Maudie Hammond, a dance number, and Abe Doty, with his interesting pictures of Glorietta's progress.

STORK CLUB....

NANCY SUSAN COOPER

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton F. Cooper of Orinda are the parents of a girl, Nancy Susan, born October 6 at Merritt Hospital in Oakland. The baby weighed 5 pounds, 14 ounces at birth.

The Coopers, who recently moved from Oakland to their new home here, have another daughter, Cindy, and a boy, 19-month-old Craig.

DAVID PENFIELD REESE

Mrs. Donald H. Reese (Paula Collings) gave birth last Saturday evening to a 7 pound, 2 ounce baby boy at Providence Hospital, Oakland.

The little fellow has been named David Penfield Reese. He is the first grandson of the George Penfields of Lafayette and of Mr. Reese's mother. Karen Collings is delighted to welcome her first brother.

Landscaping for Church Discussed

Landscaping plans have been drawn and work will be supervised by Alan Winslow for St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Orinda, according to Thomas St. Hill, chairman for the committee on landscaping which met Saturday evening at the new church on Via Las Cruces.

Winslow, who studied landscaping in Sweden and graduated from Dartmouth University in New Hampshire, will work gratuitously on the church project. He is at present a graduate student at the University of California, and is doing work south of the Orinda freeway.

In addition to St. Hill, the landscaping committee for St. Stephen's includes Mrs. T. E. Haley, Mrs. Harold Doane, Arthur Johnson and Alex Ganiats.

Surfacing of the roads and walks around the church are being completed in birdseye gravel this week.

St. Stephens to Hold All Saints Day Rites

To honor the departed, All Saints' Day services will be held at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church on Monday, with Holy Communion at 10 a.m. and Evensong at 8 p.m., according to the Rev. Charles M. Hill, vicar of the Orinda mission.

Those desiring special prayers are asked to phone the vicar at the parish office, CLifford 4-3771.

Baby Shower Held For Mrs. Reese

Mrs. Donald H. Reese of 992 Sunnybrook, teacher in the Orinda School District until her leave of absence this term, was given a baby shower and luncheon at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Donald Graham, in the Oakmore district of Oakland.

Among the guests were Mrs. G. Chester Brown of Orinda, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Olson, Mrs. Harriet Smith, and Mrs. Adelaide Peroiti.

Annual Intercity Rotary Meeting Is Wednesday

The Orinda Rotary Club will play host Wednesday to the annual intercity Rotary Club meeting in this area. About 150 persons representing the Orinda, North Oakland, Albany and Lafayette Clubs are expected to attend the noon session at the Willows.

Guest speaker will be Sudarmo Montonagoro, Indonesian student now doing graduate work at the University of California. He will speak on "Asian Neutrality — Why Are They Neutral?"

At Wednesday's Rotary meeting, George Eberhart, insurance man and resident of Orinda, spoke on the UN Charter Revision Seminar held Saturday in San Francisco.

Other speakers were Jose Eduardo Farrea and Everett Howe. Farrea, native of Ecuador studying at UC, gave a thumbnail sketch of his country. Howe, who is associate dean of engineering at UC, spoke on the U... He recently returned from Europe and North Africa where he studied progress on the demineralization of sea water, a project done for the benefit of UNESCO.

Howe listed differences in language and economic systems as the major barriers to today's peace. He said the UN is the only hope for reasonable "co-existence."

Presbyterian

The Rev. William Carl Thomas will preach Sunday on the subject, "Abandoning Ship," second in a series of sermons on "How God's Power Becomes Real in Human Life." The 11 a.m. Sunday worship services are held in the Park Theater in Lafayette. A nursery is conducted during this hour at the Lafayette Town Hall for toddlers and through primary age.

The Sunday church school is held regularly at 9:40 a.m. at the Lafayette Town Hall. Children of all ages are welcome.

A series of studies is now being led by the pastor on "The Christian Approach to Marriage and the home." These meetings are held at the Town Hall at 6:30 each Sunday evening. Special attention is being given to the "Nature of Christian Love," "Tensions in Marriage," "Problems Relating to Children" and other practical aspects of marriage and the home. The public is cordially invited.

A stimulating Bible discussion group for men meets each Wednesday morning at 6:30 at the El Nido Rancho. Breakfast is served. The women have two classes during the week for Bible discussion, these meeting on Tuesday at 9 a.m. at 45 Claremont Drive, Orinda, and Wednesday at 10 a.m. at 14 Tara Road, Orinda. These groups are open to all who wish to attend.

Hold Investiture

The following fourth grade members of Brownie Troop 203 were big sisters to the new Brownie Troop 62: Carol Goodfellow, Amy Garden, Kathleen Lambright, Kathy Raymond, Patricia Spangler, Allison and Sheridan Stampley and Patricia Winquist. The fourth grade girls led the new girls through their investiture service. Their leaders, Mrs. C. S. Winquist and Mrs. J. A. Spangler, directed.

Mrs. Ray Taber and Mrs. J. W. Roberts are leaders of the new Troop 62. Mrs. Ernest Fernest, Brownie neighborhood chairman, presented Mrs. Roberts with a Girl Scout pin.

The new Brownies are: Susan Brown, Joan Diricky, Diane Edelin, Katherine Dunbar, Heidi Enderlin, Candice Kolkhorst, Linda Roberts, Elizabeth Shephard, Laura Jean Taber, Betty Tranberg and Nan Von Gelder.

The mothers of all the new girls came to the Taber home for the investiture and enjoyed refreshments and the ceremony.

Joins Council

Robert G. King, whose parents reside at 12 Scenic Drive, has been elected to serve on the resident council of the University of San Francisco. The council is made up of resident students for the purpose of inaugurating campus activities such as inter-residence halls' athletic leagues and mixes.

King, who graduated from St. Joseph's High School in Alameda, is registered as a junior in the College of Liberal Arts.

Acalanes Valley Notes

By DOROTHEA CUMMINGS
ATlantic 3-2973

DOUGLAS RODDICK of Cora-Lee Lane will be leaving in a day or two on a week's business trip which will take him to Oklahoma. While there, he will attend the annual conference of the Society of Automotive Engineers. Doug works for Shell Development.

The Gogstads — Idar and Maria, and their two children, David and Elaine — spent a most enjoyable Sunday driving to the top of Mt. Tamalpais.

They were fortunate enough to have picked an unusually clear day and were amazed to find that they could see for many miles around the Bay Area.

VISITORS AT THE last get-together of the Acalanes Valley Squares were Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, who had been dinner guests of the R. A. Frocks. The Wilsons, who folk and square dance in Albany, had no trouble at all in keeping up with Rick Bonefsky's calls.

Incidentally, the Squares traveled to Martinez recently to attend one of the dancing parties at he Shell clubhouse. Highlight of the evening was an exhibition put on by the "Highland Dancers" of San Francisco, directed by Howard Bell. The dancers also enjoyed hearing a talk by the editor of the publication, "Let's Dance."

Squares who made the trip to Martinez included Messrs. and Mesdames George Pence, Norman Hawkins, Idar Gogstad, Martin Lewis, and Dick Weslake and Mrs. Jim Cunningham.

FAREWELLS WERE IN ORDER at the Norman Hawkins' residence last weekend when Mrs. Hawkins' sister, Mrs. Nels Ahlstrom, left for Japan. There she will join her husband, who is a captain in the U. S. Army.

Mrs. Ahlstrom, who has been living in Corte Madera with her two children, Gretchen, 3, and Barry, 2, spent her last weekend in the States with the Hawkins family.

The Ahlstroms made the trip by plane and expect to be gone for several years.

Plan Open House After UC Game

Foothill Branch members of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay wil hold open house tomorrow following the UC-UCLA football game in Berkeley. It will begin at 5:30 p.m. at the Piedmont Community Center.

Mrs. John Loper of Berkeley is head of the food committee, and Mrs. Douglas Frame of Orinda is general chairman.

Tickets may be obtained from local members or by phoning Mrs. Frame at CL 4-3194. Proceeds from the open house will go to the Children's Hospital of the East Bay.

Bolman Elected To Bank Post

Robert H. Bolman, 50 Camino Lenada, last week was elected vice-president of the Bank of California.

The Orinda resident had served since 1948 as vice-president and director of the Oakland Bank of Commerce.

He was formerly connected with banks in Honolulu, Los Angeles, Pasadena and Beaumont, Calif.

Bolman is president of the Independent Bankers Association of Northern California and a past president of the southern branch of the association.

Community

Observance of Reformation Sunday will take place Sunday at both 9:30 and 11 a. m. services at Orinda's Community Church. The latter services will feature a sermon titled "The Single Voice" and the presentation of Mendelsshon's "He Watching Over Israel" by the chapel choir.

A "Trick or Treat for Others" is scheduled for the seventh and eighth grade Evening Fellowship groups at 5:30 p.m., and a similar program is planned for the high school age group at 6 p.m. Classes are also held for all young people at the church school hour.

Dr. Georgia Harkness of Berkeley, poet-theologian and author, will be the speaker at the Reformation Day service at 7:30 p.m. Sunday in the Walnut Creek Methodist Church, 1543 Sunnyvale Avenue. Most of the Protestant churches in the Central Contra Costa area will be presented at this union service.

Professor Harkness is the author of the prize-winning hymn selected for the recent assembly of the World Council of Churches—"Hope of The World."

Sen. Miller to Speak to Demos

The Orinda Democrats will meet tonight in the Livingston Room of the Orinda Community Church.

George Miller Jr., State Senator and prominent Democrat, will speak on the 1954 campaign. The ballot propositions will also be discussed.

This will be the final pre-election meeting of the Orinda Democrats.

Honored at 35-Year Service Party in L.A.

Arthur Smith of 11 El Caminto, returned recently from Los Angeles after attending the Union Oil Company's annual 35-year-service party. He and three other Bay Area residents were honored at various tours and dinners.

Smith is asphalt foreman at the company's Oleum Refinery in Rodeo.

Garden Club to Demonstrate at Oakland Event

Orinda Garden Club members will give an "Art in Action" demonstration from noon to 1:30 p.m. daily at the third annual Holiday Decorations Program at the Oakland Auditorium Theater Tuesday through next Friday.

William Penn Mott Jr. of Orinda, Oakland superintendent of parks, who is in charge of the 4-day program, said the Orinda group's participation will include showing how to make various decorations.

He added that as many as 20 requests a day have come from Central Contra Costa County regarding the program.

Sponsored jointly by the Oakland Park Department and Bay Area garden clubs, the Holiday Decorations Program will run from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. daily. Admission is free. Purpose is to show how to make Christmas decorations for the home.

Moraga Meadows Group to Meet

Tevis Thompson, chairman of the civic affairs committee of the Orinda Association, will be guest speaker at 8 p.m. Thursday during a meeting of the Moraga Meadows Association in the all purpose room of the Glorietta School.

Thompson, who is the neighborhood improvement group's representative to the Orinda Association, will present facts contained in the Coro Foundation's study of incorporation for Orinda.

The association will hold its annual election of officers during the evening.

Frank Leibold, president of Meadow Pool, Inc., will present a progress report on plans for a community swimming pool for the Moraga Meadows and Glorietta area.

Refreshments will be served.

It costs you at least $2.50 extra when you go through the tunnel to shop. Save at home!

Put New Freshness Into Your Complexion

Why are some complexions poor, some just average and others always aglow with extra freshness that simply radiates good health and vitality? What is the factor that makes the difference? Scientists find that it is often RIBOFLAVIN, part of the Vitamin B complex that is so important to skin health.

This natural beauty aid is abundant in milk, which offers a source of riboflavin that is both delicious and the most economical available. Three glasses of milk a day will add new freshness to your complexion, just as it has for so many others. Milk makes the difference!

Candidates Quizzed on Campaign Issues

Questions on Foreign Policy, Taxes, Investigations Asked Condon, Baldwin

Congressman Robert L. Condon, Democrat, and John Baldwin, Republican nominee from the Sixth Congressional District, answer questions designed to clarify their platforms in the following paragraphs.

Prepared by The SUN, the questions are five in number, four of which were asked both candidates and the fifth of which was different for each.

Question 1 — Please indicate the aspects of U.S. foreign policy with which you are most in agreement; those of which you are most critical.

CONDON: I favor a bipartisan foreign policy with prime emphasis on working for peace through the United Nations. I oppose irresponsible partisanship and substitution of slogans such as "massive retaliation," "liberation," and "the new look" for sound policy.

I urge the development of sensible cooperation with our allies abroad. I regret that administration officials are quarreling publicly over our position on the United Nations and other international issues.

I am against a preventive war. I believe we must keep our defenses strong, and believe that we can negotiate a lasting peace from strength.

BALDWIN: I agree with our continuing support of the United Nations and the latter's efforts to bring permanent peace to the world. I agree with the steps we have taken to enter into mutual defense pacts to strengthen our mutual security.

I agree with the continued assistance we are giving to nations now engaged in opposing Communist agression or the threats of such aggression.

I agree with the excellent work our Government has done in ironing out trouble spots in Iran, Egypt and Guatemala. I am somewhat critical of the amount of economic aid we have been giving to miscellaneous foreign nations and believe that this should be reduced.

Question 2 — Do you recommend any changes in the procedures of Congressional investigating committees?

CONDON: I believe that Congressional investigating procedures can be improved by allowing limited cross-examination by persons being atatcked, by the use of executive sessions to protect reputations from irresponsible slander, and I favor some of the other procedural changes in committee work that have been suggested by Senator Morse and others.

Basically, however, the Senators and Congressmen must develop a sense of self-restraint. They must recognize that the legitimate objects of Congressional investigation are to obtain information upon which legislation can be drafted, and to see that the executive is carrying out the functions assigned to it by the legislative branch.

The Congressional investigation committee is not a Grand Jury and shoud not have as its major function the punishment of an individual or the destruction of his character. Finally, the committee should not be devoted to the personal aggrandizement of its chairman or its members.

BALDWIN: I believe that changes should be made in the procedures of Congressional investigation committees which would:

(a) Establish a rule that a single member of a committee cannot hold a hearing, and that a hearing can be held only when a majority of the committee are present or have specifically given their consent to the hearing.

(b) Allow any witness before a committee to be accompanied by legal counsel.

Question 3 — What specific changes would you recommend in our federal tax structure?

CONDON: I would repeal those recent income tax deductions giving exemptions and a lower tax to persons who receive dividends and giving larger corporate depreciation allowances.

If such provisions were repealed, I would favor increasing the individual exemption from $600 to $700. My position was expressed by vote on the Democratic amendments to the recent income tax reduction bill and my vote against the bill itself.

In my view, no other tax reductions can be made by the Federal government until we can safely reduce our spending for defense and aid abroad.

BALDWIN: Our Federal taxes were reduced this year by approximately $7,400,000,000, the biggest reduction which has ever occured in a single year.

Every individual received a 10 per cent reduction in his income tax. I believe that because of the tremendous burden of our defense expenditures at the present time, and because we are still oprating at a deficit, that it probably may not be possible to make major additional reductions in taxes next year. However, I would be in favor of an increase in idividual exemptions as soon as our budgetary condition makes this possible.

Question 4 — In what legislation are you especially interested? Please state support or opposition.

CONDON: I am particularly interested in a Federal public works program, including monies for construction of needed schools, highways and particularly for the construction of reclamation projects from which the Federal government will be reimbursed the money expended, including the completion of the Central Valley Project.

I am opposed to any further surrender of any of the public domain to the states or to private ownership except under safeguards to protect the public interest.

I think the basic Labor-Management Act of the country should be overhauled to eliminate existing inequities. Finally, I would like to see the completion of those projects, such as the Monticello Dam, which were started during my last term in Washington.

BALDWIN: I favor reduction in the minimum voting age to 18 years, statehood for Hawaii and Alaska, a government re-insurance plan for private and non-profit health plans, amendments in the Taft-Hartley Act to eliminate the "union-busting" provision and to eliminate the requirement that labor representatives must sign "non-Communist" oaths.

Being a life member of the Sierra Club and a strong conservationist, I strongly oppose the construction of the proposed Echo Park Dam in Dinosaur National Monument. I took a six-day rubber boat trip through this area in June of this year, and am convinced that alternate sites are available for such a dam, I favor pay raises for postal employees and other federal employees.

Question 5 (to Condon) — Please state your position in answer to accusations that you have "Communist sympathies" and to the decision of the Atomic Energy Commission to ban you from witnessing the atomic tests in Nevada.

ANSWER: The statement that I have "Communist sympathies" is completely without merit. I have supported military and economic assistance abroad and have resisted cuts in our defense appropriations both of which positions are opposed to what I understand to be the Communist position.

I have consistently urged keeping our country strong in view of the present world situation. In the name of combating Communism, however, some people would adopt police-state methods and violate our traditional concepts of fair play.

I have opposed and will continue to oppose those invasions of our basic liberties. I am a strong believer in the protection of the freedom set forth in the Bill of Rights.

I emphatically resent the position by the Atomic Energy Commission with reference to my visit to the Nevada Proving Grounds. This position was taken by this one branch of the Executive Department without hearings and without notification to me prior to the decision being made.

Subsequently, it has developed that this position was taken entirely on the basis of anonymous reports and gossip relating to my past activities and alleged associations.

Some of these anonymous accusations were transparently false and others were of a trivial nature. Almost all have been aired by my opponents in past political campaigns.

I have testified fully and freely under oath and waiving whatever immunity I might have concerning the anonymous charges, and over a period of three days underwent searching cross-examinations by a joint committee of the Senate and House of Representatives.

I do not know the names of my accusers or of the gossipmongers whose reports influenced this one Executive Department. The basic right of confronting one's accusers, which President Eisenhower declared is the heritage of every American, has not only not been afforded me, but with one exception I have not been able to ascertain the names of my accusers.

I am opposed to the loose application of a security program in which the names and reputations of good Americans are hurt by irresponsible character assassins. The unfairness of the attack upon me has, I think, become demonstrated, and I think people generally resent the constant repetition of these stale charges during the course of this campaign.

I served my country as an infantryman in combat during World War II, and have served the people of this district for two years in Washington, and the people of Contra Costa County for four years in Sacramento. For the past two years, I have been in frequent communication with the defense installations in this area.

The work I have done and my postion on legislative matters of importance to our people is well-known. I think the people will evaluate my fitness to represent them, and whether or not I have done a good legislative job, on the basis of this record, and not be influenced by the frenzied name-calling campaign that is being waged against me.

Question 5 (to Baldwin) — This being a predominantly Democratic and labor district, do you think you can represent the interests of the majority?

ANSWER: I definitely feel I can represent the interests of the majority of the people in this district. The fact that 17,000 Democrats voted for me in the primary indicates that they are convinced that I would represent them properly.

Also the fact that 6,700 more voters voted for me in the primary than for my opponent indicates that there are many laboring men and union members who feel the same way.

I have worked for the interests of the people of this district in many activities, including service as director of the Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council, as director of the Contra Costa Public Health Association, as chairman of a Citizens Committee which passed an elementary school bond issue in Martinez after it had been defeated twice before, and many other similar activities.

Sheriff Candidates Express Opinions on Sub-Stations, Civil Fees, Gambling, Vice

Lt. Harry A. Brown of Alamo and B. W. Richardson of Richmond were asked the following questions about their proposals for the county sheriff's job, for which they are candidates.

Question 1.—What specifically will you do, if elected sheriff, to improve that office and to provide better service to the people?

BROWN: If elected sheriff, I will bring to Contra Costa County the most modern law enforcement possible within the budget of the department. In the first place, that means strict enforcement of all laws on the books.

Secondly, it means efficient utilization of all deputies and other available personnel. Before asking for added personnel for patrol work, I will utilize available officers who are not now doing patrol work, and eliminate duplication of jobs so that each officer is assigned a useful law enforcement post.

To further eliminate waste, I will see that every officer is properly trained to do his job in an efficient and courteous manner.

During my three years in the department, as deputy and lieutenant of the patrol division, I have seen the need for decentralization. I will press for sub-stations so that the unincorporated areas of the county can be covered effectively.

Sub-stations with lock-ups will greatly benefit our smaller incorporated cities, allowing their police officers, as well as sheriff's deputies, to remain on patrol, instead of leaving periodically to make time-consuming trips to the county jail in Martinez.

From the outset, I have proposed to establish a Juvenile Guidance Agency within the department to help misguided children before they break the law and are sent to correction institutions.

Juveniles found disturbing the peace will be referred to the Guidance Agency, along with their parents, for conferences with trained workers. Also, the agency would work toward integrating problem children into recreation programs in all communities, with the assistance of local parent, church, veteran and service organizations, many of which have already expressed a desire to help.

RICHARDSON: I will immediately decentralize the patrol division and assign deputies and patrol cars to divisions, of which I propose three at the present time.

The site of the first sheriff's sub-station has been purchased by the Board of Supervisors. Sub-stations in the other divisions will be provided in due course of time.

This change will eliminate the necessity of deputies reporting to the Martinez office at each of the three changes of shift. This will also eliminae up to two hours protection loss on each chift which is now necessitated by personnel reporting into the Martinez office instead of utilizing fully two-way radio communications for "check in." This system is used in the large counties throughout California, and is modern police practice.

The greatest problem facing our county today is the up-surge in crime. As sheriff, I would be interested in taking the lead in a crime prevention program.

This program must begin with juveniles. For many years I have taken an active part in various youth organizations, and as sheriff, I definitely intend to continue such activities on a vastly expanded basis, namely to create a Juvenile Division within the sheriff's department, whose responsibility would be to work with juveniles, school, church and neighborhood groups and service organizations; to enlist active participation of every police department in the county in the program; to enlist the support and active participation of every parent in Contra Costa County in an effort to emphasize the basic responsibility of the parent toward the child.

Question 2.—Will you authorize your deputies to enforce traffic laws on county and neighborhood roads while performing other non-emergency duties?

BROWN: Yes. I would instruct deputies to do this, in full cooperation with the California Highway Patrol.

RICHARDSON: I will not only authorize but instruct my deputies to enforce traffic laws on county and neighborhood roads while performing other non-emergency duties.

Question 3.—Will you return to the county both civil fees and civil fee mileage (services performed at an expense to the county) or will you consider these an additional compensation to the sheriff.

BROWN: This money, as well as every other compensation other than salary, will be returned to the county.

RICHARDSON: All civil fees and civil fee mileage will be returned to the county in accordance with present policies which have been in effect for the past 20 years.

Question 4.—Are the claw machines (now operating) legal or illegal?

BROWN: Strictly illegal.

RICHARDSON: Question four poses a legal question regarding the legality of the so-called claw machines. I will be guided by the determination as to their legality by the District Attorney of Contra Costa County, the person who has been elected to make such determinations, and by Pat Brown, our Attorney General. I will consult any lawyer of high repute of your choosing.

Question 5.—If illegal, what will you do about them, as well as multiple-play pin ball machines, or any other device employed to circumvent the law?

BROWN: They will be removed in accordance with the law.

RICHARDSON: If it is determined that claw machines are illegal, I, as the chief law enforcement officer of the county, will enforce the law and eliminate them. This will apply as well to any other illegal machines which may be in existence, or any other device which may be employed to circumvent the law.

Question 6.—What will you do about vice conditions in the unincorporated area of North Richmond?

BROWN: I will personally see that North Richmond and other cancerous vice spots in Contra Costa County are cleaned up.

RICHARDSON: I will insure that vice conditions in the North Richmond area will be eliminated. . . .

Question 7.—If a police chief refuses to enforce the vice laws, what will you do?

BROWN: Where any police chief refuses to enforce vice laws, I will not hesitate to step in and do so. This is required of the sheriff by law and in his oath of office.

RICHARDSON: If any police chief refuses to enforce the vice laws, I will perform my duties as sheriff of Contra Costa County and see that the laws are enforced.

Question 8.—In your post-election financial statement to the county will you itemize every contribution and contributor to you or your campaign fund?

BROWN: Yes, just as I did after the primary election.

RICHARDSON: I will itemize every contribution and contributor to my campaign fund in my post-election financial statement to the county.

Doyle, Munns State Positions on Tax Increases, Proposition 3, Legislation

Assemblyman Donald Doyle, Republican, and Edward Munns, Democratic nominee for the post, were both asked the same four questions. Their answers follow:

Question 1 — Do you believe in increasing taxes to build up a surplus for times of need, or do you favor taxing to meet current needs of government?

DOYLE: I wish to state that even though I believe we should maintain the rainy day fund built up during the term of Governor Earl Warren, I do not feel that we should increase the taxes in order to create a surplus for the state, but should tax our people only to meet the current needs of running our government.

MUNNS: A savings account is just as desirable for a community as for the family. Small deposits in good times help meet emergencies in more strenuous ones, no matter what the cause. However, large surpluses at any one time or excessive savings are dangerous because they tend to extravagent spending and wasteful practices.

Question 2 — If new revenue is required, do you believe it should be obtained by new taxes or from tax sources already on the books? If new taxes, from which sources?

DOYLE: If at all possible, I would like to see a tax put on cigarettes, beer, alcholic beverages, and more money from the horse racing tracks of this state for the general fund.

There may be some areas where we could obtain more taxes, such as a greater percentage of the tidelands oil money going to the general fund. Because of the deficit that we will undoubtedly have next year, I feel we should re-evaluate this distribution.

MUNNS: Present tax laws need overhauling by an impartial commission before any wide-spread changes are made. However, should new levies be needed, they should fall first and heaviest on corporations, utilities, inheritance, unearned income and professional sports.

Severance taxes on those profiting from exploitation of exhaustible natural resources should be increased.

Question 3 — Do you approve of the proposed constitutional amendment to divorce Alcholic Beverage Control from the Board of Equalization and place it in a separate department?

DOYLE: I definitely feel that in order to clean up a very bad situation in certain areas of California the people of the state would do well to vote favorably on the proposition which would place alcoholic beverage control in a separate department.

I had the pleasure of co-authorizing the Weinberger Bill in the Assembly and followed through the investigations made by that committee, and even though this particular amendment will not cure all of the ills, it is certainly a step in the right direction.

MUNNS: Good administration requires that responsibility for action should rest in a sensitive body. In public administration, this requires authority be vested in an agency where all operators are subject to constant public scrutiny and close administrative controls as in a separate department. The amendment is in accord with sound business management.

Question 4 — In what legislation are you especially interested? Please state support or opposition.

DOYLE: It is generally known in Sacramento, as well as other parts of the state, that one of my specific interests is that of education. As vice chairman of the Committee on Education for California, I have worked with all concerned to help alleviate the schoolhouse building shortage, to encourage higher minimum salaries for school teachers, and other pieces of legislation affecting teachers' tenure and schoolhouse planning in California.

The problem is of such magnitude that I would hesitate to go into detail at this time as to just what I felt could be done at the next session of the legislature. I can only say to you that I shall continue my fight to better the school conditions for the entire state of California.

It has always been my philosophy to support any legislation that is good for the majority of the people and to oppose legislation that is detrimental or harmful. I am sorry that time will not permit me to go into further details due to my being here in Los Angeles on hearings.

MUNNS: I am advocating a strong liberal legislative program which includes the following:

Fair and full employment; a greater resource base through encouragement to industry to become established within the state to improve tax base and employment; a state planning board to insure coordination between all state and federal programs and activities and to eliminate friction and duplication.

Greater educational aids to provide more incentives to teachers, especially prospective ones, and better school facilities and teaching aids; more adequate attention to colleges and universities.

Protection of civil rights and liberties; revision of current welfare and security programs to insure humane and fair treatment; medical care for all in accordance with sound insurance principles; an effective lobby control law.

Opening reservoirs to recreation; better pollution control; rapid development of our water resources; a state-wide conservation congress to examine programs for the preservation of natural resources.

A state labor relations board.

I am opposed to use of off-shore oil leases funds for purposes other than beaches and parks; reducing requirements for off-shore oil leases; turning public power over to the PG&E; permitting advertising along freeways; "hot cargo" proposals.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Because of my keen interest in civic affairs, each week I read "Letters to The Editor" published in The SUN.

Invariably, just before the election, the favorite subject of these letters is "politics," and naturally the most controversial contest receives the most frequent mention. I am sure everyone agrees the most controversial contest this year is between Mr. Robert Condon and Mr. John Baldwin.

The question isn't so much whether, in your opinion or in mine, Mr. Condon has subversive connections and leanings, but rather:

1. The Atomic Energy Commission DID bar Mr. Condon from witnessing an atomic bomb test.

2. Admiral Carle Espe, director of naval intelligence, DID write a letter to naval commandants indicating Mr. Condon had been a member of the Communist party.

3. Stephen A. Mitchell, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and other prominent Democrats DID disavow Mr. Condon.

Each of these three charges originated in Washington, D. C., and they are the type of thing that reflects unfavorably on us, the voters, when we send such a "marked" man to Washington as our representative.

I am a registered Democrat, but these are the three reasons why I am going to vote for Mr. John Baldwin, and I do urge other Democrats to stop and think before they vote in November.

KORA POWELL

Dear Editor:

Since I am the "Orinda lady" referred to by Mr. Paul Pease in The SUN last week, I must answer Mr. Pease and clarify the point he made. Issues as important as connecting a candidate for the sheriff's office with the support of a well-known gambler must be dealt with forthrightly.

I went to what had been widely announced as a public meeting at which Mr. Richardson was to speak. Like many other Orinda citizens, I wanted to know if it was true that Pechart had been in Antioch camdardson. While there were only about 23 people in attendance, the group was obviously composed of very strong Richardson supporters, because when I asked if if was true that the editor of the Antioch Ledger had stated that he knew that Pechart had been in Antioch campaigning for Richardson, the group was indignant.

Mr. Richardson said that I should phone Mr. Flaherty at once and ask him if it was true. Two Richardson supporters accompanied me to the phone to do this.

The editor of the Ledger hesitated a moment when I asked the question, then replied that it was true, he did know that Pechart had been actively campaigning for Richardson in Antioch. He added that "they called Pechart off."

I said, "Whom do you mean by 'they'?" Mr. Flaherty replied, "Richardson's boys."

I came back into the room and told the group what Mr. Flaherty had said. Mr. Richardson then said, "Yes, that's it, I had my boys call Pechart off."

Mr. Pease has made it appear that my reason for calling the Ledger was to find out if it was supporting Richardson. This is not true. I called the Ledger for a much more significant reason. I wanted to know if the editor had said that Pechart had been campaigning for Richardson in Antioch.

I understand that Mr. Flaherty, in writing of this phone conversation in his paper, said that the "Orinda lady" was now supporting Richardson. This is wrong. I am for Harry Brown more than ever, now that the Ledger editor has said that Pechart has been working for Mr. Richardson.

I am concerned about the possibility of a bar going into the new Orinda shopping district across from the school and churches. (One was allowed to go in near the Alamo School.)

Therefore, I asked Mr. Richardson if he would sign a pledge that if elected sheriff he would do all in his power to see that a bar will not be housed in any building from the area of the Orinda Village to the Crossroads. Mr. Richardson said he could not sign such a paper without "investigating further." I asked him to look into the matter at once and sign the paper and return it to me so that I would know his stand on the matter. He has not as yet done so.

When I asked Harry Brown to sign the same paper, he quickly did so, saying, "No bar should be located near schools and churches." I still would like to know why Mr. Richardson has not signed the paper which I gave him two weeks ago.

MRS. MITCHELL L. FARRAR.

Around Orinda

HALLOWE'EN

The mere shimmer of a ghost's ectoplasm now separates us from that bewitching night. Some Orindans have already paid homage to the gremlins and goblins.

Susan Gregg celebrated her seventh birthday on October 23 with a Hallowe'en luncheon given at the Gregg home on Washington Lane. Each little guest made and modeled a Hallowe'en mask made of a paper bag trimmed with such items as straws, candies, and pretzels. Guests were Jill McCaffery, Sherrie Locklin Kathy Grah, Linda Fasbourg, Claudia McCann, Toni Lee Markus, Jenny Ann Ferguson, Patsy Deldine, Mary Bartlett, Diane Burdett, and Susan's two-year-old sister Paula.

Peggy Rose also was just 7 and celebrated her birthday with a costume party for 17 little friends: Cindy and Lorrie Wilford, Vicki Brown, Susan Leftwich, Janet Haines, Leslie Reid, Julie Hickox, Cathy Lair, Michele Kelly, Ellen Rasmussen, Carol Anne Bishop, Janice Robertson, Frances Stuart, Libby Elliott, Denise Cullen, and Sally Sutton.

A neighborhood party for residents of Meadow View Road will be held tomorrow night at Carroll's Ranch. Twenty-five couples are planning to attend. Barn dance costumes will be the garb of the evening, and the program will include entertainment, cocktails, Hallowe'en games, dancing, and a midnight supper.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Bauman will entertain their neighbors at a Hallowe'en party on October 30 at their home on Overhill Road. Guests will be in costume.

FAREWELL

George and Ada Warren and their family are moving to Palo Alto next week.

Mrs. Ken Rossi, who will soon be leaving for the East, was guest of honor at a tea given at the home of the James DuPuis' this afternoon.

FAIRYLAND BIRTHDAY

Steven Currie entertained his little friends at Oakland's Fairyland on October 16. Helping to celebrate his birthday were Walter Ammon, Buzz and Greg Wagers, Tommy Lock, Scott Van Brunt, Brad Van Every, Billy and Hazel Edmunds, and Steven's sister, Gail.

FOOTBALL FANS

Mr. and Mrs. William Cary of Orinda and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gaillord of Lafayette spent last weekend in Los Angeles and attended the USC-Cal game.

Mr. and Mrs. John Everett, Mr. and Mrs. Al Johanson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Currie, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ammon, and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Mainwaring were among the 60,000 who attended the 49er-Detroit Lion Game last Sunday.

BIRTHS

A boy, their fourth son, was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, 16 Northwood Drive, on October 24.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas of Broadview Terrace at Kaiser Foundation Hospital in Walnut Creek on October 22. The Thomases have two daughters, Carol and Dorothy.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Spungeri of Estates Drive on October 16. The Spungeris also have two daughters, Susan and Judy.

CUT OUT

In last week's column one of the new members of the Orinda Juniors got cut out because of spact limitations. That's what happens being way at the end of the alphabet.

She's Mrs. Don Woodcock and is an old time Orinda resident — seven and a half years! Pat has three sons, Don Jr., Gary, and Kent, and in between mothering a scout den and four baby turtles, is interested in hula dancing, sewing, and painting. She attended UC and is a member of the Contra Costa Gamma Phi alumnae. Now we've ended up saying more than we did last week!

Go to Church Sunday

Episcopal

Youth Sunday will be observed by St. Stephen's Episcopal Church with two services being conducted by members of the Young People's Fellowship on Sunday at 9:30 and 11 a.m. on Via Las Cruces in Orinda.

At the two morning prayer services, the liturgist will be George Harrison; psalmist, Judy Hill; first lesson, Juday Crabtree; second lesson, Susan Murray; prayers, Jane Simmons; presentation of alms, Carl Lincoln; alms collectors, Ann Hightower and Georgianne Watkins, and ushers, Larry Pilcher and Val Geissler. Peter St. Hill will deliver the sermon.

During the 9:30 service, the Reverend Charles M. Hill will present the Acolyte service awards for St. Vincent's Acolyte's Guild. Recipients will be Jim Hill, for 13 years' service; three years', Carl Lincoln and George Harrison; two years, David Brown, Phil Bartlett, Mike Bigler, Arne Groennings and Lynn Hill; one year, Gordon Fowkes, Sam Hubbard, Tobey Johnson, Byron McCormick and Peter St. Hill.

Tonight the Young People's Fellowship will hold a Halloween dance in the undercroft of the church, following the Acalanes football game.

Lutheran

Chester Lincoln, real estate developer, builder and member of Lincoln Development Company, will be the guest speaker Sunday at the 9:30 a.m. Sunday School services at Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church.

"Being Filled by the Spirit" is the topic for the Reformation Sunday sermons by the pastor, Edward R. Andersen, at the 8 and 11 o'clock services.

A special congregational meeting will be held Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the church.

Members of the congregation will be asked to discuss and vote on the sale of a 20-foot piece of property to the County Highway Department for the widening of Moraga Highway.

Lutheran

Pastor Merle Tollefson of Our Saviour's Lutheran Church, 1035 Carol Lane, will preach Sunday on "Making A Good Confession."

A confirmation service will be held during the 11 a.m. worship period.

In the Sunday School, grades four through high school meet at 9:30 a.m., and the pre-school through third grades meet at 11 a.m. The Junior and Senior Lutheran Leagues meet at 7 p.m., the Adult Inquiry Class at 8 p.m. The Women's Bible Class meets at 10 a.m. Thursdays, followed by a Willing Workers Day and sandwich lunch.

Scout Salute..

Leave for Camp

Tomorrow at 7 a.m. scouts of Troop 207 leave Orinda for a two day camp-out at Camp Redwood near Boulder Creek in the Santa Cruz Mountains.

According to Jerry Cullen, scoutmaster, the boys have been busy for several weeks planning their trip and are prepared to cook their meals and establish their camp by approved "patrol method." Halloween has been set as the theme of the trip and the junior leaders of the troop have arranged a special campfire program for Saturday night.

Next Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. Troop 207 will honor their sponsoring organization, the Orinda Lions Club, at a dinner given for Lion members and their wives. Each scout in the troop will invite a Lion and his wife and serve as their host for the evening. An interesting program will follow the dinner being planned and served by the mothers of the scouts.

A highlight of the evening will be the presentation of a check in part payment for the seeing eye dog which the troop is purchasing from the guide dog training organization. The purchase is being made from the proceeds of the regular newspaper and rag drives conducted by the troop.

Last weekend on Mt. Diablo, two junior leaders of Troop 207, Dave Brown, senior patrol leader, and John Coates, bugler and patrol leader, were awarded the Order of the Arrow by the Mt. Diablo Area Chapter of the National Brotherhood of Scout Honor Campers.

School Available For Badminton

The Orinda Union School auditorium can be made available for badminton players on Wednesday evenings from 8 to 10 o'clock through the cooperation of Superintendent Joseph L. Sheaff and his staff.

There is room in the auditorium for one court. Players must bring their own racquets and shuttlecocks. A net and standards are needed. If enough interest is indicated, doubles' groups can be arranged for alternate Wednesdays so that more could be accommodated.

Men or women interested in playing badminton may register by calling Mrs. J. Gordon Ainsworth, Clifford 4-2192, tomorrow or Sunday.

Because the school administration is holding the Wednesday night time at the auditorium open until response from publication of this item can be received, and because of the limited space available, those interested should register immediately.

Girl Scouts Will Assist at Polls

Orinda Girl Scouts will be at all voting polls on the north side of the Crossroads Tuesday from 4 to 5:30 p.m. to assist parents with young children.

This service is announced by Mrs. John L. Gompertz, neighborhood Girl Scout chairman.

Similar arrangements for the south side of the Crossroads are being worked out by Mrs. Arthur Bowman, Orinda district chairman of the Girl Scouts.

Christ Work Day

Do you have any Halloween "Trick or Treat" results, such as dirty windows, messy lawns, or just plain odd jobs? The Orinda Community Church Pilgrim Fellowship will do a clean-up job on the dirty work!

Saturday, November 6, is the date of their annual National Christ Work Day. The money is pledged to the National Pilgrim Fellowship Social Action Program. Residents are urged to call either Marge Fish, CLifford 4-5232, or Ed Cathings, ATlantic 4-4705, if they have work for the PF'ers to do.

Rice, Chase-Dunn EBMUD Ballot Drive Hits 'High-Handed Practices of Board'

Declaring that "the high-handed practices of the present board must be halted," the East Bay Water Users Committee yesterday urged election of George L. Rice and Keith Chase-Dunn to the East Bay Municipal Utility District Tuesday.

Rice and Chase-Dunn oppose Louis J. Breuner, board president, and Thomas S. Neilson. Co-chairmen of the committee are Thomas J. Ryan of Contra Costa County and Robert H. Kroninger of Alameda County.

Fluoridation of the water supply and "adoption of a zoning policy which will meet the needs and desires of residents of the local community" are among key planks in Rice's and Chase-Dunn's platform. The Water Users Committee, which has headquarters at 1322 Webster Street, Oakland, states:

"THE OVERWHELMING evidence in favor of fluoridation of public water supplies demands that EBMUD act immediately to instigate this practice as a justifiable and reasonable health measure.

"For the EBMUD to continue its inaction in the face of the mass of evidence which incontrovertibly proves the case for fluoridation as a preventive of dental decay is gross and willful neglect of the public trust."

The committee also says:

"THE POPULATION of the Bay counties, of which we are an integral part, is growing at the astounding rate of 7400 persons per month. All our public facilities must be continuously expanded to meet the challenges of such growth. Yet, the Board of Directors of the East Bay Municipal Utility District continues to demonstrate its unwillingness to meet its basic obligations to the people.

"Builders throughout the area served by the water district complain bitterly about the lack of cooperation they receive from EBMUD in the development of new homes. Large-scale commercial water users are reluctant to expand their industries because of excessive charges. Additional supplies of water for future expansion are uncertain.

"THE RETENTION of thousands of acres of 'excess land' is not a proper function of a publicly owned water utility. This land must be made available to the people for such development as may be consistent with the approved planning of the local communities. There appears to have been 'profiteering' in the sale of certain lands by EBMUD. This practice must be stopped.

"The San Pablo Lake should be opened to the public for boating and fishing as are like reserve water supplies throughout the state. These recreational activities cannot possibly endanger the public health according to eminent health authorities. The present board, in its usual arbitrary manner, has flatly rejected requests of individuals and sportsmen's organizations for such utilization of this publicly owned property.

"The present Board of Directors has ignored the inherent social aims and purposes written into the Municipal Utility District Enabling Act. For example, a solution to the serious transit problem is readily available under this legislation. Yet, the board refuses to give any consideration to this problem.

"THESE AND OTHER complaints against the present directorship of the EBMUD are so generally heard in the district that it has seemed necessary for someone to take remedial action. It is for these reasons that hundreds of public spirited citizens have seen fit to sponsor and support the candidacies of Keith Chase-Dunn and George L. Rice.

"The high-handed practices of the present board, which has been a self-perpetuating body for nearly two decades, must be halted. EBMUD is a PUBLICLY OWNED water utility. Its policies must be determined by men who will act at all times in the public interest."

OTHER POINTS in Rice's and Chase-Dunn's program are listed by the committee as:

Investigation of the use of income from water sales for capital improvements; creation of advisory boards to encourage water users to aid in formulation of EBMUD policies; formulation of a public relations program "which can be honestly and cheerfully implemented by officials and employees of the EBMUD."

CHASE-DUNN, a lifelong resident of Berkeley, is married and has three children.

A former counselor for Berkeley cub scout packs, Chase-Dunn attended the University of California and served with the U. S. Army for six years. He is a book dealer in Berkeley.

RICE resides in Oakland with his wife and daughter. He is a partner in California Research Associates, an economic consulting firm, and is retained as director of research and education by Local 1245 of the AFL International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

Rice is secretary of the Health Section, Oakland Area Community Welfare Council; a director of the East Bay United Crusade, an active member of the U. S. Naval Reserve and a member of numerous civic, veterans and fraternal organizations, including the Commonwealth Club of California.

Breuner, Neilson Campaign Emphasizes EBMUD 'Economy, Dependable Service'

Civic, business, fraternal, church and community leaders representing every walk of Alameda County and Contra Costa County life have endorsed the reelection of Louis J. Breuner and Thomas S. Neilson to the Board of Directors of East Bay Municipal Utility District, according to Walter L. Eggert of Lafayette, chairman of the Citizens Committee for Neilson and Breuner.

The incumbents are opposed by George L. Rice and Keith Chase-Dunn.

Neilson and Breuner are seeking reelection on a basic platform of "water economy and dependable service," Eggert said.

HE STATED that committee members in the Orinda-Lafayette-Walnut Creek area include:

William B. Freeman, Jack Pedder, Mel Nielsen, E. C. Scofield, Ned de Laveaga, W. Stewart Dinwiddie, James R. Moore, William Barron, Orton Lucas, Dr. Paul A. Slattery, Dr. John L. Gompertz, Anthony R. Cicanciarulo, Joseph A. Cianciarulo, Thomas F. Kling, Kennon P. White Jr., Kenneth Gelwix, William H. Mordy, Edwin W. Rodman, Frank A. Marshall, Gene Williams, Kendric B. Morrish, Dr. H. M. Sanford, Fred J. Seulberger Jr., Henry A. Schwerin, Arthur Westlund, F. C. Merner, Orville Sammann and Max Jaffe.

In recommending reelection of Breuner and Neilson, Eggert cited the following EBMUD accomplishments in brief:

RATES—Reduced 2 cents, September 1, 1953—the fourth reduction since EBMUD started distribution in 1928.

Taxes—August, 1954, the tax rate was reduced one cent for the 1954-55 fiscal year. This is the third consecutive year that the tax rate has been reduced, Eggert pointed out. He added that the new rate of 25 cents per $100 assessed valuation is 50 per cent of the original rate of 50 cents set in 1923.

Eggert continued:

"THE STEADY REDUCTION in the cost of water service to the consumer has been made possible by three factors:

"1. Continued operating economies.

"2. Increased use of water in our fast-growing service area.

"3. Lowered interest costs resulting from policy of constantly reducing bonded indebtedness."

POLITICAL POT

CIO Group Backs Rice, Chase-Dunn

Gordon Laughland, president of the Alameda County CIO Council, has announced the council's official endorsement of George L. Rice and Keith Chase-Dunn as candidates for directors of East Bay Municipal Utility District.

Sen. Breed Lauds EBMUD Directors

State Senator Arthur H. Breed Jr., yesterday commended the East Bay Municipal Utility District directors for "their positive and forward-looking, long-range water plans," and pledged his full support of these programs.

Following a tour of inspection of EBMUD properties and facilities, Senator Breed conferred with Louis J. Breuner, board president, and Thomas S. Neilson, director, and later expressed himself as completely satisfied that the EBMUD directors "have planned wisely to meet the water needs of the East Bay's present and future citizens."

Baldwin Caravan

A Caravan for John Baldwin, Republican candidate for Congress, will leave Orinda from Ned DeLaveaga's Chevron station at the Crossroads Monday night at 7 o'clock and proceed to the El Rio Hotel in Antioch to participate in an election eve television rally. James Moriarty is caravan chairman.

Similar caravans from all parts of the county will meet at Antioch for the rally, which will be televised on Channel 13 at 9:30 p.m.

Orinda residents may contact Mrs. Melvin Jacobus, CLifford 4-3567, or Mrs. Lindsey Spight, CLifford 4-2006, for further information.

Republicans Join To Back Condon

Formation of a Republicans for Condon Committee was announced today by the co-chairmen for Walnut Creek, Alamo and Danville, Jack Benguerel, 2073 Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek, and William Needham, 477 Veda Drive, Danville.

"As long-time members of the Republican Party and as firm believers in the principles of responsible citizenship, we have been shocked, offended and discouraged by the campaign being conducted in behalf of the candidacy of John Baldwin," they said.

Baldwin on TV

John Baldwin, candidate for Congress, will present his final pre-election plea for the support of the voters of the 6th Congressional District on Station KOVR on Monday night, at 9:30 p.m.

Strategic Air Command to Be Lecture Subject

"The Ground Observer Corps is the nucleus of the entire Civil Defense program," says Capt. Edwin G. Triner, U.S. Air Force, who will deliver the third of the GOC sponsored lectures on various aspects of the national defense program at 8 p.m. Wednesday at 2040 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

Subject of Capt. Triner's talk, "The Strategic Air Command," will include a discussion of the importance and the position of the Strategic Air Command in the overall defense picture, and the relationship of the various Civil Defense components with the work of the Strategic Air Command, special stress being given to the Ground Observer Corps in this connection.

Capt. Triner, presently serving as assistant professor in the University of California's Department of Air Science, served as a Marine pilot during World War II, subsequently obtaining his bachelor of science degree at West Point and his Ph.D. at the University of California. He has since been engaged in various training capacities, particularly air training.

The meeting is open to the public and persons interested in sky watching are particularly urged to attend, according to Mrs. Isabelle Salisbury, supervisor of the Lafayette Post, which serves the area from Orinda through Walnut Creek, and south to Moraga.

CALIFORNIA NEEDS HIM!

YOUR UNITED STATES SENATOR THOMAS H. KUCHEL

The Job! The Man! The Record! 2 years in Congress . . . 28 Public Bills authored or co-authored and passed into law!

Keep the "Key to Good Government" VOTE FOR U. S. SENATOR THOMAS H. KUCHEL NOV. 2

HE'S ON THE JOB! HE GETS THINGS DONE!

Thomas J. Mellon, Chairman
Northern California Campaign Committee for Senator Kuchel

Here is what RICHARD GRAVES is FOR . . .

California's terrific growing pains are an important campaign issue! Our famous economic strength is threatened by growth. Our beautiful California landscape is being blighted by growth. Our governmental services are strangled by growth.

JOBS AND INDUSTRY ARE THREATENED. California's population has outgrown her economy. We have a "job deficit" now, and it's growing. New people are pouring in faster than jobs are being created.

OUR CALIFORNIA WAY OF LIFE IS THREATENED. Our fame as the ideal state for family living, with pleasant towns, beautiful countryside, fresh, sunny weather, good fishing, hunting and camping — all this is slipping away from us.

Growth has all but strangled our local government services, crowded our schools, jammed our highways, blotted out the sun and fouled our air with smog.

YET MORE GROWTH IS COMING. In just the next 4 years (the term of the next governor) our population will jump another 1½ million. We will need ½ million more jobs. We will need school space for half a million more children, road space for a million more cars.

YES, GROWTH IS INEVITABLE, BUT IT CAN BE MADE DESIRABLE. What's needed now is not talk. What's needed is a constructive plan of attack on California's problems of growth. And that's exactly what Richard Graves, Democrat for Governor, offers to California — not new offices and increased spending, but vigorous, imaginative and effective leadership of the agencies of state and local government we now have, but fail to use to best advantage . . . a constructive growth plan for California.

Richard Graves, Democratic nominee for Governor, pledges action now . . . not "someday" . . . on these California growth problems . . . action in time that will help stop the blighting of California . . . help save future taxes. Here is Graves' growth plan for California.

JOBS AND NEW INDUSTRY: California has a serious job deficit now and it's growing. Our population jumped 375,000 in the last year; yet the state's job total went down 50,000! There is no time to lose. With the population growh coming, we need half a million more jobs in just the next 4 years.

Graves proposes a State Development Agency, more effectively utilizing existing state offices and personnel, to work with local governments and private groups to create the conditions that will encourage industry to come to California. 37 other states have such an agency. California must act fast to get new industry — to supply jobs, to provide industry tax money to help pay for schools and highways.

SCHOOLS: Our classrooms are swamped — with worse crowding around the corner. The present governor not only ignores this problem; this yeor he plundered $28 million from the state fund which backs up school bond issues, just to square his own budget deficit in an election year. He has slashed university and state college building programs in half.

Graves proposes an immediate inventory of our statewide school building needs for the next ten years, the development now of a program to meet this need — long range, lower cost planning and financing to replace today's frantic, stop-gap measures which waste dollars, give us too little, too late.

MENTAL HEALTH: State mental hospitals are overflowing, understaffed. In the face of great need, the present governor talks big, but cut the mental hospital building program in half, clamped the lid on research and rehabilitation programs.

Graves proposes expanded research on the causes of mental illness, improved treatment to shorten periods of confinement (and reduce long term costs), out-patient clinics in our communities, a realistic building program.

SMOG: This eye-burning health menace rolls right across city and county boundaries. Local government is helpless; only regional action backed by the state will finally bring control. The present governor has pooh-poohed the smog menace publicly. He has slammed the door on effective smog control.

Graves proposes state and regional air pollution control boards representing state and local government and private groups concerned with smog problems. The state board will promote research, establish smog control policy, plan financing. Regional smog control boards will enforce effective laws.

RECREATION: Our state parks and beaches are overcrowded now; with the millions of new population coming, they will be deluged soon. Yet the present governor proposes to cut off funds now available for beach and park development.

Graves proposes state action now to preserve and expand fishing, hunting, and camping facilities for the state's growing numbers of sportsmen, early purchase of beach and park sites before prices skyrocket.

HOUSING: In spite of the greatest house building boom in history, California still faces a shortage of decent housing. Our fantastic growth is the reason. We need slum clearance, we need better and more uniform standards for the new tract and subdivision communities we are building.

Graves proposes state action to obtain maximum effectiveness in federal, local and private housing programs; to help cities clear their slums under the redevelopment act which Graves helped write; to help the home buyer get a better value in a better planned community.

WATER AND POWER: Our number one business, agriculture, needs more water and power — and the need is urgent. Our cities and industry are also water-short, power short. But the present state administration can't make up its mind about a water and power policy, supports state and federal programs to give away our natural resources.

Graves proposes a State Department of Water Resources to get going now on long-term water and power needs. A cooperative plan, with federal, state, local governments and private power companies all doing their proper share is the Graves aim.

TRAFFIC AND RAPID TRANSIT. California's streets and roads carry the highest concentration of cars and trucks on earth. Yet our freeway program lags, our secondary roads are swamped, rapid transit hardly exists. The incumbent governor presents no program, regardless of his easy promises, and the statewide traffic jam worsens daily.

Graves proposes a small expertly staffed state transportation agency to bring order out of present chaotic state transportation programs, to seek immediate traffic relief as well as long-range freeways, to initiate action on mass transit, to coordinate government action affecting sea, air and rail traffic.

Instead of "do nothing until it's too late" . . . Graves promises action

Master Sewerage Plan Due in March

A master sewerage plan for Contra Costa County will be available next March, County Planning Commissioner G. F. McCormick has announced.

Excellent progress has been made in the initial month of preparation, with Consulting Engineer W. J. O'Connell and county personnel "fashioning an effective cooperative group from among county agencies contributing to the study program," McCormick declared.

County Planning Director Thomas Heaton explained the study in its simplest form is "determination that when sewers are laid they will be of sufficient size and in proper locations to care for the ultimate population of each given district."

"We are guarding against a 12-inch sewer being placed where a 36-inch sewer will be the ultimate requirement," he added.

It costs you at least $2.50 extra when you go through the tunnel to shop. Save at home!

Colorful Floral Display Planned In Walnut Creek

Exhibits by individuals, firms and organizations will be included in the second annual show of the Chrysanthemum Club of the East Bay in Walnut Creek Recreation Center November 6 and 7.

There will be no admission charge, according to General Chairman E. Wynne Newell.

Among participants will be Walnut Creek Garden Club, entrance garden; Walnut Creek Women's Club, foyer decorations, and Walnut Creek Junior Women's Club, outer entrance.

Walnut Creek Branch of American Association of University Women will provide a corner exhibit and Orchard Nursery of Lafayette and Watson's Green Thumb Nursery will enter displays.

Hendrick Piano Company will furnish a Wurlitzer Organ and an organist and Rhinehart's of Walnut Creek will present a silver bowl for the best flower arrangement.

Trophies will be awarded in each section by the sponsoring club.

Women Voters to Study Schools

The local school system and this area's tremendous growth will be discussed in League of Women Voters unit meetings next week. The topic is a continuation of a local government survey started by the league last spring.

Monday, a unit will meet at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Ardy Armen of 3818 Juniper Drive, Concord. Wednesday at 8 p.m., another group will meet at the home of Mrs. James Box of 1979 Faye Court, Pleasant Hill.

And at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, a unit will meet at the home of Mrs. E. C. Litsinger, 209 Patterson Boulevard, Pleasant Hill.

A welcome mat to local women has been extended by the unit. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Monroe Smith of Walnut Creek and interested women may attend any of the study sessions.

Local league members have also reported that an article concerning the national league appears in the October 23 issue of Saturday evening Post.

Christian Science

How God's infinite love for man redeems man from sin by destroying sin and revealing man's divine, sinless nature, will be explained at services Sunday in Churches of Christ, Scientist, 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, and 42 Orinda Highway, Orinda. The Lesson-Sermon is entitled "Everlasting Punishment."

Among the passages from the Bible will be read the story of the Prodigal Son, including his forgiveness and his welcome back to his father's house, as told in Chapter 15 of Luke's gospel.

The following selection on the overcoming on sin will be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (327:9-13):

"Evil is sometimes a man's highest conception of right, until his grasp on good grows stronger. Then he looses pleasure in wickedness, and it becomes his torment. The way to escape the misery of sin is to cease sinning. There is no other way."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (130:7): "Let Israel hope in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption."

Acalanes Soph Hop Tonight

"Hernando's Hideaway," is the theme and setting of the annual Acalanes High Soph Hop to be held in the Don gym tonight.

Dance preparations are headed by sophomore officers Bill Freeman, Patsy Stevens, Marilee Harrer, Norma Wadell and Judy Parker.

FOR UNITED CRUSADE. A total of $1363.20 has been pledged to Diablo Valley Area United Crusade by employees of Capwell's Walnut Creek. Here in a symbolic presentation, Commerce and Industry Chairman Charles Gable (left center) receives the presentation from Nadine Shipley (right), treasurer of the Walnut Creek Acorn Club of Capwell's employees. Looking on are Club President Lois Hope (left) and J. N. Miller, Capwell's employee chapter chairman.

Realtors to Hear About Road Plans

"Proposed Road Development of Our County," will be discussed Monday by County Road Commissioner Victor Sauer before the Contra Costa Realty Mart Breakfast at 8 a.m. in El Nido Rancho, Lafayette.

Women's Division of Contra Costa Real Estate Board met last night in El Nido after SUN press time to hear a report of its nominating committee.

Ski Enthusiasts Will Entertain

The Mt. Diablo Ski Club, in conjunction with Boero's Sport Shop in Walnut Creek, will hold its annual pre-season open house and fashion show Thursday at 8 p.m. at Clayton School in Concord.

The affair is for members of the club from throughout the Walnut Creek-Lafayette-Orinda area, as well as elsewhere in the eastern part of Contra Costa County.

All persons interested in skiing and ski fashions are invited to attend, according to Ed Boero of the Sport Shop.

Local residents will model the newest in ski togs for men and women.

In addition, a ski film will be shown, equipment will be displayed and refreshments will be served.

"This is the kick-off before the club adjourns to the ski lodge at Dodge," Boero said.

Please write us news about your family, friends, clubs and interesting events. If you see something important, call at once.

Doctors Attend Heart Symposium

Among the 801 physicians who attended the 25th annual Postgraduate Symposium on heart disease in San Francisco recently were Daniel Ritter Jr., Irving Fine and Marion G. Josephi of Walnut Creek and Carl W. Smith of Orinda.

The symposium, a joint project of the Contra Costa County Heart Association and six other heart associations, each year brings world-famed specialists to San Francisco to discuss with physicians what's new in the field of cardiology.

It costs you at least $2.50 extra when you go through the tunnel to shop. Save at home!

Through the years, Miss California has had one hair-breadth escape after another from the grasping clutches of the pension promoters • 'Way back in 1938 they tried to ply her with Ham and Eggs, and the year after that they offered her funny money—Thirty Dollars Every Thursday • Their schemes bore fruit in 1948 when the McLain Pension Scheme squeaked through at the polls by a narrow margin, and Miss California faced fiscal ruin until the voters mercifully saved her the following year by turning the promoters out of office • In 1950 the pension promoters tried to lure Miss California with the promise of vast gambling profits • In 1952 she fled from a Blackjack Scheme • This year Miss California is threatened once more with fiscal ruin at the hands of pension promoters, by Proposition No. 4 •

It's Prosperity Insurance!

Proposition 5 renews a 40-year old law exempting home-owned ships from personal property tax levies that can't be assessed against foreign and out-of-State ships.

California ships could not compete, tax-wise, without this protection, and in many cases would be forced to seek registry in other ports, spending there the many millions of dollars for repairs and provisioning now spent in California.

A healthy shipping industry is vital to California's prosperity. Shipping furnished jobs for 20,000 Californians last year with a payroll of more than 100 million dollars! Every county in every section of the State benefits in terms of wider markets and better prices for products, more business volume, more stability, more job protection.

Everybody favors Proposition 5: the Democratic Party and the Republican Party, the Farm Bureau Federation, the State Federation of Labor, the State Chamber of Commerce, the California Federation of Women's Clubs and scores of other civic, labor, business, women's and patriotic organizations.

Crucial Games Tonight

Don, Ram Teams Meet Tonight at Acalanes Field

The Acalanes Dons play host to the Pleasant Hill Rams tonight, with kickoff time set for 8 p. m. under the lights of Acalanes Memorial Field.

The game pits two elevens that have as yet to register a win in the 1954 grid season.

The Dons do have a tie on their record — a 6-6 score in the season's second game, against Tracy.

COACH HAL BRIGGS of Pleasant Hill has an eleven that is on the light and inexperienced side.

While the Dons of Coach Erwin Mattson have an edge in weight, they are also on the light side as far as experience goes.

The loss of three top-flight players via the injury route has hurt the Dons no end. On the sidelines are John Conley, Eric McKinley and Dennis Busby.

The Dons do have a host of fast but light backs who on occasion have eaten up a lot of yardage.

THE MAIN PROBLEM has been defensive in nature, which for the most part has been marked by difficulty containing the opposition.

Mainstay of the Rams has been their fullback, Jim McMillan, who has been a consistent ground gainer all season long, as well as a top notcher on defense.

Both elevens are "hungry" and the game could be one of the season's best, as both teams feel this is one they can win.

BOTH SUFFERED setbacks by big scores last week, when the Dons lost to Antioch 53-13, while the Rams were on the short end of a 52-0 count with Pittsburg.

Chances are there won't be that kind of scoring tonight as the game appears to be a tossup.

Rams Walloped by Pitt Eleven, 52-0

It was a long and sad night for the Pleasant Hill Rams last Friday when they were on the short end of a 52-0 score, with the high-riding Pittsburg Pirates rolling into high gear in the fourth quarter as they racked up 25 points after holding a 27-0 lead. The game was played at Concord.

It was a forecast of things to come when the Pirates scored the first time they got possession of the elusive pigskin.

HALFBACK Tommy DiMercurio returned a Ram kick from his own 10 to the 46, and from there the Pitt machine went to work scoring on a 22-yard end sweep, with DiMercurio doing the ball-toting.

DiMercurio scored later, on runs of 37 and 12 yards, but the longest run of the evening was a 70-yard gallop by Halfback Charley Cassilar.

Halfback Johnny Weekly returned a punt 65 yards in the closing minutes of the game.

THE RAMS found the opposition too tough to do much with. Pitt's speed was a mighty determining factor.

The closest the Rams got all night was to Pitt's 46 early in the game.

The bright light for the Rams was Fullback Jim McMillan, who has been a standout all season long with his sterling all-around play.

Speed and experience once again told the tale as Coach Hal Briggs' thin and inexperienced ranks fell by the wayside.

Antioch Panthers Steamroller Dons By 53-13 Score

The Antioch Panthers proved to be anything but gracious hosts as they buried the hapless Acalanes Dons last Friday night by a 53-13 score.

The Dons set the stage when, after an Antioch touchdown on the opening kickoff was called back on a clipping penalty, they hold for downs, only to lose the ball on a fumble on their second play from scrimmage.

The Dons held again for three downs, only to have Antioch score on a run off a reverse play from 25 yards out.

ANTIOCH RACKED up two more tallies in the second quarter and added the conversions to put them ahead 20-0.

Late in the second period Quarterback Red Jones of the Dons heaved a pass to End Dave Baldwin, who covered 70 yards before being downed on the 10.

The Antioch defense stiffened and held for two downs only to have Halfback Geoff Wahl race around left end to score, and it was 20-7 when Jones booted the conversion.

IN THE SECOND half it was all Antioch except for the closing minute, as the Panthers ran and passed at will against a Don defense that split at the seams.

Time and again the Dons had Antioch thrown for a loss, only to let the opponent slip from their grasp and go for yardage—on two occasions for touchdowns, one a 55-yard run and another a 45-yard pass.

The Dons' only other tally came when, with a minute on the clock, sophomore Quarterback Don Combs threw a 25-yard pass to End Terry Ashe, who rambled 45 yards into the end zone.

ANTIOCH WAS ahead at the time, 53-7, and when the conversion try failed it was 53-13.

Seconds later it all ended with Antioch in possession in midfield.

The Dons, riddled by injuries, hit a season low and have a long way to come back if they are to hit the win column.

Knights Face Tough Pirate Eleven Tonight

The Las Lomas Knights have their hands full tonight when they face the high-scoring Pittsburg Pirates at the Steel City Stadium.

Pitsburg ranks as the county's No. 1 team off its showing to date and is the favorite to capture the county pennant.

The Knights, while underdogs, have been a surprise eleven all season, and if Pitt lets down at all, Las Lomas could make a game of it all the way.

COACH George Deklotz has the Knights in high gear, especially after they outplayed Diablo's heavy team last week, only to lose out by a narrow 7-6 margin.

The Knights played inspired ball in the Diablo game and had the Red Devils back on their heels deep in their own territory when the game ended.

In Pittsburg the Knights will have a problem in facing the speedy backs of the Pirates, who have been breakaway artists all season.

Tom DiMercurio, Charles Esposito and Dave Jett were on last year's winning county relay team and pose a real problem for any defense.

ON DEFENSE the Pirates have been a rock-ribbed outfit, tough to penetrate for any consistent yardage.

The Knights have come fast and figure to be reaching a peak.

In Bob Kinyon, Rick Ostrom and Don Ogden, the Walnut Creek eleven has a starting backfield that has racked up more than its share of first downs.

In the line such stalwarts as tackles Arnie Lindquist and Arnold Lahde, along with guard Webb Johnson, have made it anything but easy for the opposition.

Kickoff tonight is scheduled for 8 o'clock.

Prep Football Season Nears Its End; Pittsburg, Diablo Vie for Title Spot

By ERWIN MATTSON

IT IS DIFFICULT TO REALIZE that the 1954 football season ends with next Friday night's games and that but three practice sessions with the pads on are left.

The season to date has run pretty much according to form as far as the pre-season "dope bucket" is concerned, with Mt. Diablo and Pittsburg out in front of the pack.

The Pittsburg Pirates loom as the No. 1 club, but the issue in all probability won't be decided until next Friday when the two top clubs meet up.

SURPRISE OF THE league has been the Las Lomas Knights, who upset the "dope bucket" when they tripped up the Albany Cougars in a practice session and then came back to almost topple Diablo's Devils in a 7-6 thriller.

The Acalanes Dons have been on in-and-out team, looking great on occasion and then anything but that, as was the case last Friday night, when they were swamped by Antioch.

The Pleasant Hill Rams, like the Dons, have as yet to win, but on occasion have shown surprising form.

THE ISSUE for first seems to be definitely between Pittsburg and Diablo, with Antioch in the No. 3 spot.

The big question lies in the ranking from there on in.

Part of the story will be told tonight when the Dons and Rams tangle under the lights of Acalanes Memorial Field.

Both clubs are certainly hungry for victory, and it could turn out to be a real ball game.

BASKETBALL swings into action following the close of the gridiron season, and one of the featured events will be the basketball tournament, which is scheduled to be held at Pittsburg.

Pittsburg High has a new gym under construction. It's supposed to be ready in time for the tournament.

In the event that such should not be the case, plans call for play to be shifted to Mt. Diablo High.

THE EVENT will include both sections of the Diablo Valley League and will be sponsored by the Block Lettermen's Association, comprising all of the Block Letter Societies of the various schools involved.

The tournament gives a preview of all teams and has proven to be a well-attended affair.

SPEAKING OF basketball, one of the pressing problems has been securing practice games.

Leagues have limited schedules, and new schools have taken up the slack to such an extene that it has been very difficult to round out schedules.

At present the Dons, for example, have four open dates, with only one likely to be filled, which creates another problem, in that the practice games are necessary in order to get ready for league play.

They are few in number as it is, and not to fill them is a definite handicap.

High Schools Continue Driver Training

Automobile driver training behind the wheel of dual control cars is a regular course again this year for students of Acalanes and Las Lomas High Schools. The actual on-the-road driving instructions are supplemented by classroom studies in the principles of highway safety.

Continuation of the courses is made possible by the loan of a new Pontiac to Acalanes High School by Cappel Pontiac of Walnut Creek and a new Ford to Las Lomas High School by Rett-White Motor Sales of Walnut Creek and Lafayette.

THE INSTRUCTION CARS have been equipped with dual brake and clutch controls developed by the American Automobile Association. This equipment was supplied at cost by the California State Automobile Association to Cappel Pontiac and Reee-White Motor Sales, which paid for and installed the equipment. With these controls the instructor retains complete control of the car at all times.

Neil M. Parsons, district superintendent of schools, announces that instructors for the course this year are John McLean at Acalanes and Edward Lahey and Robert Kirkpatrick at Las Lomas.

SAMUEL W. DUTART, CSAA district manager, handled arrangements for assignment of the driver training automobiles to the schools.

Besides arranging for the loan of the automobiles, the CSAA also cooperates in the classroom work. It furnishes at cost the textbook "Sportsmanlike Driving," lends equipment for testing students' abilities and provides without cost material for instruction on traffic laws, accident prevention and driving courtesy.

Vikings Meet San Jose on Santa Clara Field

East Contra Costa's Vikes will meet their second league opponent, San Jose J.C., tomorrow night at 8 p.m. on Townsend Field at Santa Clara High School in Santa Clara.

The game, originally set for Friday afternoon in San Jose was rescheduled to provide working San Jose rooters a better opportunity to see their team in action.

Although the Vikings dropped their league opener to a traditional rival, Hartnell College of Salinas, last Friday, by a 25 to 12 final, they hope to make a stronger showing against the Jaguar squad, according to Vike Coach Hal Buffa.

Knights Nearly Upset Diablo Devils

The surprising Las Lomas Knights made a bold bid for fame last Friday night when they came mighty close to upsetting the "dope bucket" as they set Diablo's Devils back on their heels time and again, only to lose out by a one-point margin, 7-6.

The game, played under the lights of Acalanes Memorial Field, found the Knights outgaining the heavy Red Devils, who held a 20-pound per man advantage, not only on the ground but also in the air and in first downs.

The total offense figures found the Knights with 189 yards, to 167 for the Devils.

IN THE AERIAL game the Knights had 65 yards to Diablo's 25, while in first downs it was 10-8, with the Devils on the short end.

Las Lomas took command in the second quarter, when they went 60 yards on a sustained march to score a TD.

The two crucial plays took place when a pass from Bob Lucas to Arne Lundquist was good for 15 yards, with the ball going to Diablo's 8.

ON THE NEXT play Lucas unwound his trusty right arm again with a heave to Steve Cook in the end zone for the tally, making it 6-0, and that's the way it stayed when a conversion pass from Bob Kinyon to Cook misfired.

The halfway mark found the score still 6-0., and that's the way it stayed until near the end of the third quarter, when Diablo's Halfback Dick Brown went around end from 35 yards out to score.

When Fullback Rego Piva plunged over with the conversion try it proved to be the old ball game, with the Devils out in front, 7-6.

THE KNIGHTS came back to give Diablo a real scare when, with four minutes in the ball game, Kinyon heaved a long pass good for 45 yards to Don Ogden, right half, with the ball ending up on the 8. Ogden was tackled from behind.

Diablo's defense came into play when, on the next play, the Devils threw Fulback Kinyon for a 6-yard loss to the 14.

On the next play Diablo's quarterback, John Wingfield, intercepted a pass on the goal line and rambled to the 13.

THE KNIGHTS got back into the act when they held the Devils for three downs. On a fourth and one to go they recovered a Diablo fumble on Diablo's 31.

The Knights lost two at right end and when three passes failed the Devils took over with 15 seconds to go and ran out the clock.

The amazing Knights were on the short end only in the scoring, as they played the major portion of the game in Devil territory and outfought as well as outgained their heavier and more experienced opponents.

Guard Webb Johnson and Tackle Lundquist were standouts for Las Lomas.

Recruiter Points To Career Training

Emphasis on career training provided in the U.S. Army was placed this week by Sergeant T. E. Grover of the recruiting office that serves this area.

He volunteered to answer any questions concerning his branch of the service at the Berkeley Post Office Building or by telephone. His number is TH 3-2977.

Jot Down These Checklist Tips -- Then Do Them!

This week's Garden Checklist suggests the following activity:

1. Plant spring flowering bulbs, such as tulips, hyacinths, daffodils and ranunculus.
2. Plant new lawns now.
3. Most lawns benefit from a prewinter application of a balanced commercial fertilizer.
4. Sow these seeds in the open ground: Alyssum, Virginia stock, baby blue eyes, scabiosa, godetia, calendula, clarkia, scarlet flax and linaria.
5. All gladiolus should be lifted by this time. Store in shallow trays. Dust the bulbs with lindane or D.D.T. to kill the thrips.

Will Publicize Play on Radio

The Dramateurs will take to the air waves at 11 a.m. Sunday to herald their forthcoming production of Tennessee Williams' "Summer and Smoke." Some of the members of the cast will be interviewed by Dean Maddox on his Cliff House program on station KFRC.

Directed by Carl Rasmussen, the play will be presented at the Orinda School auditorium in Orinda on November 4 and 6, and at the Berkeley High School Little Theater, Berkeley, on November 12 and 13.

Tickets are available at Hinks Library in Berkeley, and in Orinda by phoning CL 4-5517. They'll also be on sale at the door the nights of the performances.

Varied Purposes Served by Hedges

Hedges make the ideal screens, windbreaks and fences.

Before selecting shrubs for hedging, detrmine how high and wide you want your hedge to grow. Your nurseryman can then tell you which shrubs to use for your specific purpose.

While members of the Boxwood family are usually thought of as very formal, since they are so often seen carefully trimmed, few realize that this evergreen group actually has billowing characteristics.

English Boxwood, much seen in Northern California, will in one vraiety grow 15 to 20 feet high and as wide, over the years.

Myrtus communis, or True Myrtle, is a round, pleasantly aromatic, glossy-green shrub that is fine for formal or informal hedging. It grows 5 to 6 feet high and 4 to 5 feet wide.

Dwarf Myrtle is a very compact shrub, fine as a low hedge.

Boxleaf Euonymous is another excellent low hedge shrub, very formal and growing only 1 to 2 feet high and about half as wide.

Drive carefully through residential streets and save a child's life.

Junipers, Pines Add Shrub Beauty To Home Gardens

Juniper and pine shrubs are excellent for low-spreading form, for container or background planting or as a cover of waste space. Evergreen and ever-hardy, these conifers are being used by more and more California gardeners to beautify and accentuate outdoor living areas.

In size, junipers and pines of certain varities grow from 2 to 20 feet and more, but for use in the Western garden there are a large number that stay under 4 feet.

Creeping juniper offers a compact mat of foliage in grey-blue, while Waukegan juniper proves itself suitable for steep banks. In the fall, Waukegan's usually blue foliage turns a deeper purplish shade.

In pines, the Japanese Black Pine, good in all parts of the state, grows to 4 feet in 10 years. It resembles the Austrian pine botanically but is slower growing.

Its foliage is dark green and coarse. This pine is used by Japanese gardeners in dwarf-tree training.

It costs you at least $2.50 extra when you go through the tunnel to shop. Save at home!

Social and Clubs

Diablo BPW Plans 1st Fashion Event

Mt. Diablo Business and Professional Womens' Club will present its first annual fashion show, "Holiday Fashions on Parade," November 5 at San Ramon High School in Danville.

Starting at 8 p.m., the affair will be a benefit for the club's scholarship and welfare funds.

Chairman is Scotty Penconic who will be assisted by Ella McCaffery, co-chairman; Dorothy House Mullong, tickets; Lavonne Price and Louise Diefenbach, refreshments; and Jen Bailey, prizes.

OTHER COMMITTEE chairmen include Genevieve Cironcione, decorations; Peggy Flukey, tables and chairs; and Melba Spurgeon, radio and television.

Refreshments will be served by Claire O'Neal, president; Alice Stevick, president-elect; Maude Wagner, parliamentarian and past president; Rhoda Owen, recording secretary; Jen Bailey, corresponding secretary, and Nadine Pond, treasurer.

Shops assisting in the affair will include Harel's of Walnut Creek, furs; Ju-Ell Shop and Town Toggery, Danville, fashions; and Hazel's Hat Shop of Walnut Creek, hats.

MODELS FOR THE Ju-Ell Shop will include Felicia Jervis, Beverly Hutton, Rhonda Owen, Louise Ratkay, Addie Patterson, Delores Barron and Melba Spurgeon.

Models for Town Toggery will be Joan Seydel, Nancy Larson, Lillian Betts, Barbara Frick, Kay Harr, Pat Leigh and Nadine Ponds.

Tickets and reservations may be obtained from Mrs. Mullong, days at VE 7-4279, evenings at VE 7-2418; Mrs. Pencovic, days at AT 3-6234, evenings at AT 3-2580; Mrs. Spurgeon, days at YE 4-7121.

'Bustle' and Ball at Orinda Country Club

The "Hustle Bustle" and President's Ball are highlighting events this weekend at the Orinda Country Club.

"Hustle Bustle," novel golf event, opened today for women club members. Following a breakfast at the club, the women were scheduled to tee off between 9 and 9:30 a.m. Directing the day of golf antics are Mrs. Robert Diehl and Mrs. King Wilkin.

During the 11-hole event, the ladies will wear head-dresses depicting literature, art, music or the cinema. They'll be judged by Mrs. George Pacini, Mrs. James Duffy and Dick Osborne, and prizes will be presented for the most original and clever creations.

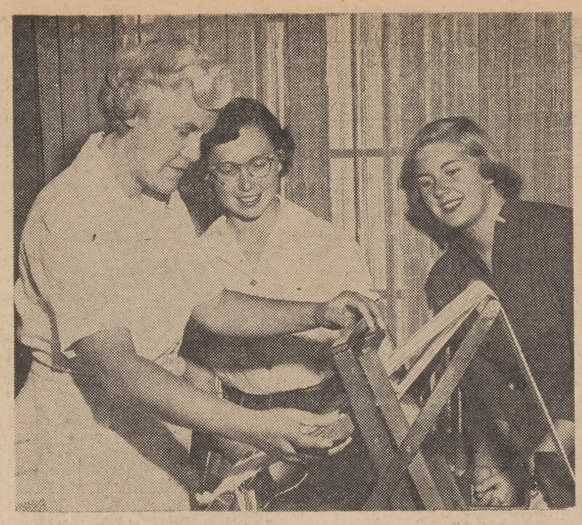
The President's Ball, first in the history of the Orinda Country Club, will be held tomorrow evening at the club. President John McDonnell and his wife, Mary, will be feted at the formal dinner-dance.

The dinner hour will be preceded by a cocktail party in the Pine Room for members and their guests. President McDonnell will be the host there.

The "Hustle Bustle" event will feature hazards not usually found in a normal round of golf. Past years have revealed invisible hairpins around the hole, a bird cage with the door open to sink the putt, an ice cream cone instead of a tee, or even a 12-inch length of rubber hose on which to set the golf ball.

The affair promises to match, if not surpass, all previous affairs of its kind at Orinda Country Club, according to Mrs. Wilkin and Mrs. Diehl.

Decor for tomorrow evening's President's Ball will include many shades of chrysanthemums, autumn leaves, and at each table large white candles surrounded by cari-colored mums.



WEAVING IS EASY, when you know how, Mrs. Celestine Sullivan demonstrates to Martha Houser of U. C. and Karen Johansen from Lafayette. Mrs. Sullivan will demonstrate her art at the annual Settlement School Tea and Sale of Contra Costa Alumnae of Pi Beta Phi Thursday from 2 to 4:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Donald Allen, 3181 Tiegland Road, Lafayette.

Alumnae Will Mark Start Of Sorority

Gamma Phi Beta alumnae of Contra Costa County inaugurated a new year of social and philanthropic activities at a recent evening meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Hunt, 24 Park Lane, Orinda.

Mrs. Terence Ring of Walnut Creek, president of the group, conducted the meeting. Plans were made to join the Berkeley alumnae in a Founders' Day celebration at the University of California chapter house in November, commemorating the 80th anniversary of the sorority's founding. Contra Costa alumnae also assisted the Berkeley alumnae in a rummage sale held October 9, 10, and 11 in Oakland, proceeds of which will go toward a child welfare project this year.

On the social calendar is an eggnog party scheduled for December 5, for local Gamma Phi alumnae and their husband. Plans for this are being ararnged by Mrs. Douglas Johnston, the social chairman of the organization.

Among the young women who enjoyed Mrs. Hunt's hospitality were the Mesdames Richard F. Peters, Delbert Perkins, William Patterson, Conway Smith, E. Walton Kirk, David B. Stewart, Harney Wilson, Donald L. Kelley, Don B. Woodcock, Philip May, Douglas M. Johnston, and Terence Ring.

Bill Stayton, Whittier Girl Are Married

Mr. and Mrs. William Ralph Stayton are back at their studies at the University of Redlands after their recent marriage in Whittier, Calif. William is the son of the Ralph W. Staytons of Lafayette and Mrs. Stayton is the former Helen Kathleen Boucher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Boucher of Whittier.

The couple's honeymoon was spent in Carmel and the Santa Cruz Mountains.

Mitchell Cowan was best man at the wedding in Whittier's First Methodist Church. Ushers were Edward Eliason, Harold Furseth, Bob Porterfield and Bob Boucher. Brian Boucher, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

The bride wore a gown of floor length lace and tulle, with a shoulder length veil and small cap of lace, trimmed with beads and sequins.

Her attendants were in net and tulle over taffeta in varying shades of pink. Their headbands were of tulle trimmed with beads, and they carried large nosegays of pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Fletcher Taylor Honors Son's Bride

Her son's bride, Mrs. Fletcher Brandon Taylor Jr., was honored at a formal tea given October 16 by Mrs. Fletcher B. Taylor at her home on Happy Valley Road, Lafayette.

Several hundred friends of the groom's mother, coming from throughout the Bay Area, were introduced to the bride.

Humpty Dumpty Planning Benefit Barn Dance

At the October meeting of Humpty Dumpty Chapter, Children's Home Society, plans were discussed for a barn dance to be held at some future date for the benefit of the society's statewide private adoption program. Mrs. H. S. Middough will be chairman of the affair.

This group will participate in the Towhee Annual Christmas Tea, sponsored by the Towhee unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

This event will be in November at the Diablo Country Club. Mrs. Charles Shepler was named chairman of the Humpty Dumpty Chapter entry to be presented at the tea. Mrs. Elmer Morasch will assist.

Sewing chairman, Mrs. Richard Bjorndal, announced a sewing bee at her home. Article made will be sent to the Children's Home Society's Oakland headquarters as part of the chapter's volunteer work for the home.

Mrs. Robert N. Bovard will be chairman of the November 12 bake sale to be held at Safeway store in Walnut Creek.

Proceeds from the bake sale will be used to aid in the work of Children's Home Society of California.

Junior Women Planning Party

The Walnut Creek Junior Women's Club is planning to have a Halloween hard-times party for members and their husbands tonight at the home of Mrs. Reed Bells, 372 Marshall Drive.

The evening's entertainment will include several games, dancing with music by a four piece band, and a smorgasboard supper.

AFS Purpose, Results Told At Reception

Last Sunday afternoon over 130 friends of the American Field Service Teen-age Exchange Program from Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, San Francisco and Oakland assembled at the home of Mrs. George Hickock, 88 El Toyonal Road., Orinda, for a reception.

Honor guests were Stephen Galatti, national director, of New York City; Mrs. Helga von Hoffmann, German director, and the four exchange students in this area.

Mrs. von Hoffmann told about the aims and results of the program abroad. Herself an exchange student in 1950, she told about the feeling of good will and understanding which exists throughout Europe among over 1000 of the young people who have been exchange students under the American Field Service Program.

She especially stressed the comradeship—which she said the young people of all countries of Europe have learned to feel toward each other, as well as the special love and affection they have developed toward American young people.

The Orinda and Walnut Creek exchange students are: Charlotte Hradetzky, Vienna, Austria, living with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hudd of Las Palomas, Orinda; Pavo Vakeva, Malmi, Finland, whose American "mother and father" are the Ralph Halls of Davis Road, Orinda; Liliane Meyer, Esche-sur-Alzette, Luxembourg, who calls the T. D. Sanford family of Orinda her American "parents," and Maja Anderson, from New Zealand, living with the Robert Freemans of Walnut Creek.

Maja attends Las Lomas High School. The other three students attend Acalanes High School.

Linnet Auxiliary At Monthly Meet in Lafayette

On Monday at the home of Mrs. Eric Peter on Crest Road in Hidden Valley, Lafayette, Linnet Auxiliary to Mt. Diablo Therapy Center held its regular monthly business meeting, President Mrs. Elwood Laws presiding.

Mrs. P. R. Lar Rieu gave a report on the work at the Therapy Center where the Sheltered Workshop is continuing to play a large part in rehabilitating the physically handicapped through their industrial work program.

One of the many jobs being undertaken at present is the sharpening of hypodermic needles for a surgical supply house, according to Mrs. Lar Rieu. She mentioned too, the new speech therapy program put into operation at the Center.

Mrs. William Nodder, second vice president, announced Mrs. Phillip Simmons would represent Linnet Auxiliary at the Christmas Tea to be given by Towhee Auxiliary on November 30 at Diablo Country Club. Mrs. Simmons is to make a Christmas Table arrangement.

A nominating committee for officers of Linnet for 1955 was chosen. Mrs. W. F. Pruess, chairman, to be assisted by Mrs. Fred Foster and Mrs. Richard Hurst. Discussion of the operation of the Thrift Shop project concluded the business session.

A social hour was enjoyed by mmebers following the meeting. Mrs. Claude McPhee of San Miguel Road, Walnut Creek, was welcomed as a new member. Mrs. Walter Eggert of Lafayette assisted Mrs. Peter as co-hostess in serving dessert and coffee to the members.

Marilyn Atkinson Engagement Told

Recently announced was the engagement of Miss Marilyn Jean Atkinson of Orinda to Glenn Owen Burnham, USAF, who is in the medical corps at Parks Air Force Base.. December 5 is the date set for the marriage.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bion Theodore Atkinson of Los Dedos Road.

The engagement was revealed at gatherings in the Atkinson home and the home of Miss Harriett Guthrie of Via Hermosa, Orinda.

The marriage will take place at St. Clement's Episcopal Church. Attending Marilyn at her wedding will be her cousin, Carol Ann Shay, Mrs. Erin Scoggin of San Ramon, Miss Harriett Guthrie of Orinda, and Miss Janice Marple of Denver, Colo. A special guest will be Marilyn's grandmother, Mrs. Bion Lucien Atkinson.

The bridegroom has completed three years at Southern Missionary College, Chattanoiga, Tenn.

Sowers to Host Play School Parents at Party

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Sowers will be hosts Saturday evening at their Lafayette home when members of Pied Piper Play School hold a Halloween Costume party.

Gay Twenties costumes will be the attire of the evening. Hosts include members of the incoming and outgoing board of directors.

Tuesday evening, Mrs. Sowers, newly elected president, will preside at the first meeting of her term at the monthly meeting held at the cooperative nursery school, Kinney Drive and Boulevard Way.

Other officers include Mrs. Robert Brownlee, first vice president; Mrs. B. Riffe, second vice president; Mrs. Harold Hansen, secretary; and Mrs. B. Cameron, treasurer.

Friday morning the children of the school hold their annual costume party with special decorations which they made for themselves.

Park Group to Hear Oakland Authority Talk

The second annual dinner of the Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council will be held tomorrow at the Danville Grange Hall, Diablo Road, Danville.

Speaker will be William Penn Mott Jr., superintendent of the Oakland park system.

Committee chairmen who have been under the direction of William E. Hassler are Mrs. Leonard Ford, decorations; Walter Rugh, reservations; Mrs. D. Marston, menu and Winston Petty, parking. Hassler was in charge of invitations and program.

Mrs. Ruth Wallis, chairman of the nominating committee will present candidates for the coming year's officers who will be elected during the short business session which will follow the dinner.

A home cooked dinner will be prepared and served by the ladies of the Danville Grange under the direction of Dr. and Mrs. Carle Fiedler.

Sorority Group To Hold Tea, Show Weaving

A weaving demonstration by Mrs. Celestine Sullivan will be featured at Pi Beta Phi's Contra Costa Alumnae Settlement School Tea and Sale Thursday from 2 to 4 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Donald Allen, 3181 Tiegland Road, Lafayette.

There will also be many beautiful woven pieces such as skirts, stoles, place mats, napkins and purses on display as well as many other interesting items, according to Mrs. R. P. Rupprecht, settlement school chairman.

INTERESTED PERSONS are invited, Mrs. Rupprecht added.

The wife of Dr. Sullivan, professor of philosophy at the University of California, Mrs. Sullivan taught weaving and other subjects at the University of Washington for nine years.

In addition, she taught weaving at the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School at Gatlinburg, Tennessee. And it was there she met Martha Houser, whom she will introduce at the tea.

ONE OF FIVE children of the Richard Housers who live on a smal tobacco farm, Martha attended the settlement school, living in a dormitory.

And during a summer when there was illness in the Sullivan family, Martha spent a great deal of time helping them out. Out of gratitude, the Sullivans are now sending her to the University of California.

Nancy Moran Is Married In Rites Here

Nancy Aileen Moran of Lafayette was recently married to Robert Emmett Buckley Jr. of San Francisco in a ceremony at Lafayette's St. Perpetua's Catholic Church. A wedding reception was later held at Seven Oaks ranch, home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Moran.

The Rev. Vincent Breen of Centerville, close friend of the bride's family, conducted the service.

Nancy wore a gown of white tulle and lace applique, with a full floor length skirt and chapel train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was worn with a lace crown belonging to Mrs. Edward Kozel. Completing her ensemble was a blusher face veil. She carried white cattleya orchids attached to her prayer book.

The bridal attendants wore antique champagne satin gowns. Contrasting brown velvet sashes fashioned the ballerina length dresses. Serving the bride were Nancy's sister, Mrs. John D. Rarig of Lafayette; Miss Aileen and Maureen O'Brien, twin cousins of the bride; Mrs. Neil V. Moran of Lafayette, her sister-in-law; Mrs. Edward Kozel of Oakland; and Mrs. Lowell Clark.

The bride's mother chose ice blue silk brocade and had matching accessories and a cymbidium corsage. Mrs. Robert Emmett Buckley, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gown of rose mauve chiffon and lace. Her corsage was of cymbidium orchids.

Alan Murray was Robert's best man.

Mrs. Buckley is a graduate of the College of the Holy Names and spent last summer traveling abroad. Her husband is a St. Mary's College graduate.

Garden Group Sees Wild Flower Slides

Slides of wild flowers and a potted plant sale were features of the luncheon of the Garden Section of the Alamo Women's Club meeting Wednesday noon.

Jo LeBaron, program chairman and section chairman, introduced Mrs. Zimmerman of Piedmont who showed the slides.

The plant sale, a semi-annual club event, featured herbs, annuals, perennials, seedlings and others, all ready to be transplanted into the garden.

Luncheon chairman was Mrs. R. Jackson, assisted by Mrs. A. Peterson, co-chairman; Mrs. Paul McDonald; Mrs. Marjorie Clark Ongman; Mrs. Lewis Buletti; Mrs. W. Diehl; Mrs. B. Linhares; Mrs. F. E. Young and Mrs Jack V. Shahbazian.

PATTER ON THE PARTY LINE

By PATRICIA JELTON

Sorry to have missed you last week, chums, but we simply got so involved in the passing scene that we never got off the merry-go-round to chronicle same.

Par example. Last Tuesday week attended a most charming soiree at the new salon-type diggings of Mrs. Evelyn Bennett, who has forsaken Happy Valley environs for Washington Street in San Francisco, but not, fortunately, her Happy Valley pals.

This was a most enchanting gathering of talented and interesting people, including the guest of honor, Mrs. George Stoicesco, recently returned from Europe and about to depart for Australia. Mr. Stoicesco, who in the past was ambassador from Rumania to many European capitals and the Far East, is always eagerly sought by hostesses in the City and Beverly Hills.

Prince, Count, Baron, Consuls — All Were There.

This country mouse was also delighted to meet: Madame and Baron De Cabrol; Dick Von Karnebeck, Dutch consul; Poom De Ralguine; the Albert Campidonicos; Nina and Jurek Byczkowski; the Werner Phillips (Mr. Phillips is a portrait painter of note, as is the very charming Serge Ivanoff, who, incidentally, is entetrtaining this evening); the Monty Williamses; Prince Nicholas Tchkotoua; Yves Roubaud, the French consul; Bernardo Dugans, the Argentine consul; Count Vasco Da Gama; Dario Shindell; Edgar McAuliffe; Frank O'Connell; the Dr. Foster E. Bennetts of Orinda; and many others.

"We feel exactly as if we were reading all this in the bachelor column of a rival newspaper," we confided to a tall and handsame gentleman whose car we had just acquired.

Well, naturally, as usually follows in sophistilated anecdotes of this kind, the tall and handsome gentleman was Bachelor Malcolm Moulder, himself a very informed and well-traveled personage.

This very stimulating continental atmosphere could lead nowhere but to Place Pigalle for more gaiety, which left us in practically no shape at all for the impact of entertaining George Murphy on the following evening.

Mr. Murphy flew up from Beverly Hills to assist the countryside in a rallying round for John Baldwin, and proved to be a most stunning person (oh, brother!), possessing a depth of intellectual intetgrity.

The rest of the pages of our calendar are blank, because on the following day we had an appointment at Alta Bates Hospital, where we have been sojourning until now. It seemed like a propitious move as we were checking in, impressed by the efficient professional airs of those around us. Not a politician in the lot, think we with glee.

However, we had underestimated the enthusiasm of our localites on current issues, because somewhere in the middle of the night of our surgery, somnolent with pills, shots, and anesthesia, we were aroused by a small figure in white with flash light, who had immediate desire to discuss — politics!

After revitalizing us to some degree with hot coffee, she opined as how she understood that we did not see eye to eye on the sheriff's race.

We assured the white one that our political interest has been unabashedly partisan, but from all we had been able to ascertain, both gentelman candidates were highly qualified, equally honorable, and would do an excellent job for our county.

Seemingly satisfied, she popped another sleeping pill into our mouth, tucked is in, and that's the last we ever saw of her.

So unless we blabbed under the sodium pentathol, that's about it — except that we would like to see our little white friend again when we can focus our eyes.

Don't forget to vote, and see that all your neighbors vote!

Next week, back to bird watching.

Dance to Mark Jewish Center Dedication

Invitations have been extended to all the community leaders, public officials, religious groups, service clubs, members and friends of the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center to attend the public open house and dedication Sunday afternoon from 2 to 5 at the present Jewish Community Center building, (formerly Planters' Dock) in Lafayette.

Following the public dedication, there will be a dinner-dance celebration held at the Jewish Community Center building on November 16.

Tickets for the dinner-dance are $10 per person, and reservations must be made in advance. Mrs. Sam Wiseman, AT 4-4377 or Mrs. Mary Kreisman, YE 4-4131 should be contacted for reservations.

Second Lecture Is November 10

Lorita Baker Vallely, lecturer on current events and literature, will speak at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, November 10, at El Nido under the auspices of the Orinda Branch of the Children's Hospital. This is the second in a series of five lectures Mrs. Vallely is presenting in this area.

Her first lecture was presented Wednesday, October 13, at El Nido, and featured reviews of such books as "The Remarkable Mr. Gerome" and "The Roosevelts of Sagamore Hill."

Mrs. Vallely, who has presented such lectures for the past 20 years, has appeared each year before near capacity audiences in San Francisco's Curran Theater, and at the Berkeley Women's City Club and the Women's Athletic Association in Oakland.

There are still season tickets available for the lecture series which ends in March. Single tickets may be purchased at the door.

Polish Professor Entertained at AAUW Affair

Mrs. John Upsher Smith, AAUW International Relations Section chairman, entertained at a dinner party in honor of Dr. George Lenczowski yesterday at her home, 1706 Botelho Drive, Walnut Creek.

Guests were members of the International Relations Section committee: Messers and Mesdames B. F. Huff, B. C. Guyer, O. D. Anderson, W. C. McIntosh and Ralph C. Olberg.

Following the dinner Dr. Lenczowski addressed the meeting of the International Relations Section at the home of Mrs. Harold Mutnick, 755 Glenside Drive, Lafayette. His subject was, "America's Task in the Middle East."
